

Plans for beach chalets withdrawn after storms

PLANS to protect Monmouth Beach chalets in Lyme Regis from landslides have become the latest victim of recent storms, with the town council forced to withdraw their application.

Councillors will be told tonight (Wednesday) that the application to move the chalets seaward several metres to save them from landslips behind, submitted in December, has been withdrawn after engineers raised concerns during the recent stormy weather.

Nick Browning, head of engineering projects at West Dorset District Council, recommended refusal of the application, adding: "There would be an unacceptable level of risk of damage or destruction during storms, together with public safety concerns."

The Environment Agency also advised that there be "no new overnight accommodation" allowed in the chalets and Environmental Health raised concerns about the proposed spacing between the chalets.

In a report to be presented to tonight's Strategy & Policy Committee meeting, town clerk John Wright said he was "optimistic that planning consent would be approved" until the recent storms, which threw up debris to the current position of the chalets on Monmouth Beach.

He added that the bad weather had prompted West Dorset District Council planners to ask engineers to reassess their previous comments on the risk posed by coastal flooding and it was "extremely unlikely" that the district would approve any application being rejected by engineers.

County, district and former town councillor Daryl Turner was also strongly opposed to moving the chalets forward and submitted several photographs of the washed up debris to the district during the storms. In comparison, the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Sally Holman, and Mayoress Jane Whittington, both chalet owners, submitted letters of support to the district council, commenting that the recent storms were "once in a lifetime" events.

However, following a recent meeting with owners of the chalets, it was agreed that the application should be withdrawn.

Councillors will tonight be asked if they will support a revised application, in which the chalet site would be reduced and moved to a mid-point between the cliffs and the line proposed in the first application. Council officers met with planning consultants yesterday (Tuesday) to draw up a proposal along these lines. If the council agrees to go ahead with this new plan, a decision will be expected from the district council in late July.

In his report, Mr Wright adds: "Assessing the probability of success or failure is difficult. I suspect the key consideration will remain the same, i.e. the advice given to the planners by WDDC's engineers on the risk and impact of coastal flooding."

The report adds that if the new application is rejected, a third plan could be submitted replacing chalets with day huts.

PROVIDING WATER

ALAN ESCOTT has been general manager at Dorchester's Odeon cinema since October 2012.

The Brewery Square cinema is one of the chain's smallest and has had to overcome a long-standing loyalty to the Plaza to win an audience.

But after a slow start numbers are rising and many now see a trip to the Odeon as part of an evening out at Brewery Square.

■ HOW did you get to take up the position at Dorchester?

I'd been working in a cinema in Andover, having started work in security in Bristol and prior to that being brought up in Weston-Super-Mare. I trained as an electrician when I left school and had also worked as a fitter.

■ SO what drew you to work in cinema?

I have always had a passion for films and used to go to the pictures a lot when I was a kid. My grandfather worked in a cinema in St George, Bristol – although the building is now a pub. It was very old school, carrying reels up and down the stairs, but of course it's all digital now... the projectors are more like a computer with a complex control system which stops anyone showing films before they are allowed to. The films come in on a type of hard disc and we have to have the correct 'electronic key' to even get them to work. My grandfather wouldn't have recognised them.

BETTY TURNER

Mum passed away on the 7th March aged 88. The family would like to thank everyone for the many cards & very kind words.

A cremation will take place at Yeovil Crematorium on Friday 28th March at 11.20am.

No flowers please. Donations, if desired, for Cancer Research UK may be sent c/o A. J. Wakely & Sons Ltd, 7a Silver Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3HR Tel: 01297 443835.

■ SO how did you get this job?

It was an internal application. I had been working in Andover, commuting from Bristol and we were looking for somewhere to settle down. Dorchester seemed ideal.

■ IN terms of other Odeon cinemas this one's quite small, isn't it?

Yes – we've got three screens. The largest can seat

173, the second screen 153 and the third screen 98. It is one of Odeon's smallest. The one in Bristol has one screen with 400 seats and a couple of around 200.

■ AND how have you found Dorchester since moving here?

We love it. We have a young family and wanted to settle down. It's a lovely place and the people are friendly. I think it's fair to say it matched up to our expectations. Before I came I knew it was the county town and people had told me it was a bit like Bath – which turned out to be a bit misleading.

■ I HEAR you've been doing up your house?

It's been quite slow at time but I'm quite practical and have managed to do a lot of it myself. To date the only professional help I have had to pay for is a plasterer.

■ HOW important is it to choose the right staff?

Very. I was offered the job in June which gave me four months to oversee the final stages of the building work and to get involved in recruiting. We tend to have a young staff profile, a total of 15 full and part time and we are very keen on apprenticeships and training them up to NVQ Level 3 which many have achieved. It's great to be involved in bringing people on in their careers and to look back at the progression they have made.

■ WHAT are your early memories of cinema?

Seeing The Jewel of the Nile in the ABC at Bath was one of my early memories. It was such a treat to see a film on a big screen and I seem to remember it was a very long and narrow theatre.

■ DO you think the cinema and the Brewery Square development has made a difference to Dorchester?

Without any doubt. People tell me there wasn't much happening in Dorchester in the evenings before but Brewery Square is now busy every night, not just at weekends.

Traffic and transport issues a priority for LymeForward

IMPROVING traffic and transport issues in Lyme Regis has been identified as one of the main objectives local area partnership LymeForward would like to take forward in the coming years.

Speaking on the Lyme Regis Community Plan published in 2007 and subsequent update published in 2012 at last week's LymeForward meeting, chairman of Lyme Regis Development Trust, Wendy Davies, said it was quite encouraging that they could now "tick off" some of their objectives and may even have a skatepark by the end of the next five year period.

However, she asked members of the group to think about what they needed to look at next, adding: "The thing we really have done nothing about in LymeForward because we haven't had a specific group, is if we get any more people in the town what on earth is going to happen to the traffic and parking, and how do we cope?"

She said that the town should decide whether it wanted to encourage more people to come into the town, which could potentially drive out those who regularly visit Lyme over the winter months because it would get "such a bad reputation".

The Mayor, Councillor Sally Holman, said these issues were being looked at by the council's Planning & High-

By Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedi.co.uk

ways Committee, adding: "There have been lots of ideas but when it gets to the stage that you need money or a more co-ordinated approach there are difficulties. This is very much a county and highways responsibility."

The town clerk, John Wright, added: "Mostly it is county initiatives and all we can endeavour to do is apply some influence wherever we possibly can. At the end of the day, these decisions are really not within our gift as a town council."

Mrs Davies said that one of the main things LymeForward had been frustrated about with regards to traffic was the lack of enforcement of the weight and length restrictions of HGVs travelling through the town.

She added: "Everybody complains about the number of HGVs going through Lyme and how much it must be costing in insurance with the Guildhall always getting clobbered, but there are actually restrictions from Charnmouth roundabout through to the junction on route to Seaton."

"Why bother to have a system if you can't enforce it in anyway? It's just laughable."

Councillor Holman said this was an area that district and county councillor Daryl Turner had been working on and he hoped to improve routes around the town for HGVs.

Town councillor Stan Williams said: "I have for a long time been coming up with ideas. I would like to see an industrial site off the A35 at Penn Cross to stop all heavy vehicles coming through Uplyme and then develop the old train station site in Lyme Regis for housing rather than industrial use. Nobody seems to be bringing it forward, nobody wants to know."

Councillor Holman replied: "It is very difficult and this is another area where Daryl is taking the lead."

She added that after West Dorset District Council had approved its Local Plan, Lyme Regis could start looking at whether a Neighbourhood Plan would be beneficial in helping to resolve these issues. However, she added that East Devon District Council and Uplyme had been "unwilling" to work with Lyme on this.

West Dorset district councillor for the Marshwood Vale ward, Michael Robinson, added: "Once the plan is in place East Devon have a statutory responsibility to co-operate."

By-election called to fill council vacancy

LYME Regis electors have called for a by-election to fill a vacancy on the town council caused by the resignation of Daryl Turner, who continues to serve at district and county level.

West Dorset District Council's electoral services have confirmed that the necessary 10 or more electors have requested an election.

The proposed date for a ballot is Thursday, May 22nd on the same day as the European Parliament election.

Notice of an election will be published on Thursday, April 10th and nominations can be made between that date and 4pm on Thursday, April 24th. Confirmation of any candidates nominated will be published on Friday, April 25th.

If there is only one person nominated, the election will not go ahead and that candidate would take the seat.

Nomination papers will be available shortly from Lyme Regis Town Council or from West Dorset District Council's elections office.

New doctors at medical centre

LYME Regis Medical Centre has employed four new members of staff in a bid to improve continuity of care at the practice.

Following the takeover of the medical centre by Virgin Care in February 2013, complaints were received from patients that they did not know who their doctor was, they did not see the same doctor twice and too many locums were being used.

Speaking at last week's LymeForward meeting, practice manager Alison Robinson reported that three new GPs had been recruited.

She said that two GPs had already started working at the practice and a third was starting in April. The first two are Dr Andy Jean, who originally trained at St Mary's Paddington and has been a GP since 1996, and Dr Jo Batten. The centre has also recruited a new nurse practitioner, Sue Johnson, who joins the practice as Primary Care Nurse Lead with experience in emergency care. She will be working to develop the minor injuries unit.

Mrs Robinson reported that the new recruits meant that staff were up to full complement and would be working the same hours each week to improve continuity of care. She added that she hoped they could cover each other's annual leave, meaning they would not need to use locums in the future.

Jo Knight, service improvement manager for Virgin Care said: "We are delighted to have such an experienced and knowledgeable staff joining our team to further complement the clinical team."

Mrs Robinson also reported that the centre had set up a Patient Representative Group, which had met in January and had another meeting scheduled in April with places available for more patients to join. She said establishing the group had been "really helpful" and members had helped with a recent patient survey. A total of 230 responses to the survey were received and feedback was currently being collated for a report.

The medical centre has also launched a new patient newsletter with the next edition out around Easter, and is now able to take appointment bookings and prescription requests online.

Mrs Robinson added: "It's exciting to be able to make so many positive changes to make the service better – and we're excited to have two new doctors and a nurse joining us."

"The patient survey should give us ideas so that we can continue to improve the service offered here, and keep improving the service how patients want us to."

Thick fog results in two road accidents

TWO car accidents were reported in Rousdon, near Lyme Regis, on Friday, March 14th during thick fog.

The poor visibility on the A3052 through Rousdon resulted in a two-vehicle collision at 7.30am near Westhayes Caravan Park. The driver of one of the vehicles was complaining of neck pain and an ambulance was called to check him over but he was free to leave the scene afterwards.

A telegraph pole was also damaged as a result and BT were called to attend.

The second crash occurred whilst police officers were dealing with the first. A moped rider skidded and came off their bike on the approach to the scene of the first accident as they were unable to see the vehicles stopped at the scene due to the fog.

A second ambulance was called and the rider was taken to hospital with minor injuries.

Pay your council tax through direct debit and win an iPad

LOCAL council tax payers are being offered a chance to win an iPad if they pay by direct debit.

The prize draw has been launched by Weymouth and Portland Borough Council and West Dorset District Council to encourage people to save time and pay by direct debit.

They claim paying by direct debit is more convenient for customers and also saves both councils money.

It costs just two pence to process a direct debit payment compared to 16p for a card or £1.46 for a cash payment.

Weymouth and Portland finance spokesman Councillor Peter Chapman said: "We are hoping this prize will prompt people to make the switch to direct debit which is easy, safe, more convenient and will also help save the council money."

"In this tough financial climate we have to look at every possible way of saving money, so please support your council, sign-up for direct debit and you could win an iPad."

West Dorset council leader Councillor Robert Gould said: "This is a great prize and I hope it will encourage people to make the switch. Paying by direct debit is easy, safe and more convenient and you can sign-up very quickly online."

"I hope people will change to direct debit to save public money. We can all help make these savings so the council can spend more of the money it does have on services."

Council tax payers can sign-up for direct debit – and be automatically entered into the iPad competition – at www.dorsetforyou.com/council-tax/direct-debit

Both councils are also urging council tax payers to sign-up for e-billing as emailing accounts rather than posting them also saves money. This can be done at www.dorsetforyou.com/online-services

Both councils have already saved almost £3 million by joining together to create a shared services partnership where a joint workforce delivers services for both areas.

During the next three years Weymouth and Portland council needs to make further savings of £2.1 million while West Dorset needs to save £1.9 million.

The 'Win an iPad' competition is subject to terms and conditions.

More information is available at www.dorsetforyou.com/win-an-ipad

All direct debit payers across the Weymouth & Portland Borough Council area and West Dorset District Council area will be entered. The competition ends on May 30th and the winner will be announced in June.

Council extends deadline for skatepark tenders

LYME Regis Town Council had to extend its deadline for tenders for the design and building of the much-awaited skatepark, as no companies stepped forward before the original date.

The original deadline for tenders from those interested in taking forward the proposed skatepark at Charmouth Road car park was March 5th but has now been extended to this Friday (March 21st), by which time council officers hope they will have several interested parties.

Over 2012, the town council worked with skatepark designers and local young people to put together a design that would meet the various requirements of users, residents, and local authorities. The intention was to take a particular design through the planning process and then, provided planning permission was granted, go out to tender.

However, in early 2013 it soon became clear that this route wasn't going to work, due to issues around the designers' intellectual property and the council decided to change direction. This meant that it would have to go out to tender first to award a "design and build contract" to a company who would take the project through the planning process and building until completion.

francesca@pemedial.co.uk

The council engaged the services of a project manager to oversee the tendering process. Their first job was to invite "expressions of interest" from relevant companies to see who might be interested in submitted a tender, with four companies responding.

But speaking at last week's LymeForward meeting, town clerk John Wright explained that there had been several issues in the tender documentation, which was very large and detailed, meaning no one put forward a formal offer. The council has since spoken to the interested companies to see how these issues could be improved and Mr Wright said he was hopeful that, having solved this, they would have tenders by the new deadline.

Once the tenders have been received, local young people will have a chance to view the designs and tell the council which one they prefer before it formally awards the tender at a full council meeting in April.

Once the contract has been awarded, the successful company will meet with young people to discuss their designs and any possible amendments. Part of the tender's contractual agreement will be that the company has to submit their design to the planning authority within a couple of months.

The town council has had initial discussions with contractors Dean & Dyball working on the Phase IV of the coastal protection works, based at Charmouth Road car park, and hope there may be an "in kind" contribution from them, provided the timings of the two projects work out sympathetically.

The town council committed itself to funding up to £150,000 for the skatepark project at the end of 2013.

Efforts of the community-led Skatepark Fundraising Committee have boosted this by a further £11,000 through a number of events.

It is hoped that the skatepark, first suggested more than 30 years ago, will be completed within the next year.

Three hectare fire at Marshwood

FIRE crews were called to Marshwood, near Lyme Regis, on Tuesday morning after flames engulfed around three hectares of heath land in the village.

Crews from Bridport, Beaminster, Charmouth and Lyme Regis were called to the scene at about 10am and, at one time, there were 30 firefighters working to control the blaze, which took just under an hour to extinguish fully.

A spokesperson for Dorset Fire and Rescue said it was likely that the incident had been caused by a bonfire that got out of control.

The spokesperson said: "Fire crews were called to reports of a heath fire at around 10am. At the height of the incident, there were four fire engines and two Land Rovers at the scene. We believe the incident was due to a controlled bonfire that became out of control. The fire was fully extinguished using beaters and hose reels just after 11am."

Dorset Fire and Rescue are urging anyone who is planning to have a bonfire to contact them before doing so.

New plaque to commemorate US Army's time in Lyme Regis

A PLAQUE donated to Lyme Regis by the 16th Infantry of the United States Army, which was stationed in the town between 1943 and 1944 in the run up to D-Day, will be placed at Bell Cliff.

Councillors agreed at a recent meeting of the Tourism & Economic Development Committee to display the plaque at Bell Cliff near the town map.

As a result of work being carried out to organise the D-Day 70th anniversary commemorations in Lyme Regis over the weekend of June 6th, Councillor Lorna Jenkin has been in contact with the president of the Regimental Association of the US 16th Infantry in Kansas to discuss how they could be involved in the events.

One of the options for their involvement was that a plaque be commissioned to honour those who were stationed in Lyme Regis and subsequently went on to land on the D-Day beaches in Normandy, France.

The Regimental Association agreed to produce the plaque at their own expense, with the two council asked to find a suitable location and the D-Day commemoration team will be making plans for its official unveiling.

Councillor Michaela Ellis suggested that the plaque be placed either at Bell Cliff or at the top of Woodmead Road, where the Americans were said to have stayed and where an American flag was traditionally raised. She suggested that if the council opted for the more central location of Bell Cliff, a cast of the plaque could be made for Woodmead Road.

An image of the plaque is pictured right but the word "village" will be changed to "town".

By Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedial.co.uk

The plaque reads that during their time in Lyme Regis, the local people were "exceedingly hospitable and generous to those troops, many of whom brought home war brides from the area after the war".

It adds that the plaque commemorates those from the 16th Infantry who later lost their lives during the landings, as well as "grand alliance and friendship between the United States and United Kingdom in the great crusade of the 20th century".

Lifeboat rescues three stranded in rowing boat

THREE people were rescued by Lyme Regis lifeboat crew in the early hours of Sunday morning after their rowing boat was blown off course by strong winds.

The alarm was raised at 1.06am when Portland Coastguards requested the lifeboat assist two men and a 29-year-old woman aboard the 24-foot rowing boat, one mile south of Lyme Regis Harbour, who were unable to row in against the wind.

The boat was skippered by a 34-year-old Devon man, who did not want to be named.

He said: "We had left Lyme Regis at 6pm and the forecast was for a light northerly wind. We had all the necessary equipment on board for an all-night exercise with the boat.

"But later the wind picked up unexpectedly, and rowing became impossible. I radioed the coastguard and advised them of the situation. It was not a mayday distress call, but I jokingly said they may have to alert the French coastguards if this wind continued to blow against us!

"The coastguard decided to call the lifeboat out and, of course, we were delighted to see them. They were very professional and towed us back to the safety of Lyme Regis harbour."

Elliot Herbert, helmsman of the lifeboat, added: "It was an unusual shout for us; it's not often we tow an ocean going rowing boat. But in that wind they were going nowhere. They certainly had all the right equipment and were pleased to see us."

The lifeboat was launched at 1.18am, reached the rowing boat at 1.26am and arrived back in harbour at 1.47am.

■ LYME Regis Coastguards were called to rescue a dog which had chased a rabbit into a steep gully on cliffs at Charmouth over the weekend.

The dog, a King Charles spaniel named Poppy, plunged 50 metres off the cliff at Cains Folly, Charmouth, when it was being walked by its owner, a visitor to the area, but escaped with only minor cuts.

Poppy chased a rabbit into a steep gully and was later rescued by coastguards who abseiled down to her.

Lyme Regis Coastguards have now warned dog owners to keep their pets on leads when walking them around the cliffs. The team are technically not supposed to rescue animals but fear that owners will attempt to rescue pets themselves if they do not attend.

Dogs should be kept on leads at all times when walking on clifftops and owners should contact emergency services if their pet needs rescuing and not attempt to rescue it themselves.

Guided history walk on Golden Cap

A GUIDED walk of the Golden Cap Estate near Lyme Regis by the National Trust's regional archaeologist, Martin Papworth, will be held on Wednesday, April 16th.

Those taking part in the walk should meet at Langdon Hill car park, near Chideock, at 10.30am.

The walk will look at the historic landscape of the estate, discussing past excavations that have taken place on Golden Cap and talking about the hamlet of Stanton St Gabriel which dates back to 1086.

The walk costs £3 per person and can be booked by calling on 01297 489481.

Fishy festivals return to Lyme Regis this summer

FOLLOWING the success of last year's first crab and mackerel festivals to be held in Lyme Regis, the town will be hosting the celebrations again this year.

The festivals will shine a spotlight on these two key ingredients from the sea through a variety of fun and foodie events for the whole family to take part in.

Preparation for the festivals kicks off early this year with recipe competitions launching on Tuesday, April 1st. Cooking enthusiasts can send in their favourite crab or mackerel recipes using British seasonal ingredients before May 23rd for a place in the final cook-offs to be held during the respective festivals.

Lyme Regis Crab Festival, sponsored by the Crab House Cafe, will take place between June 7th and 14th with the cook-off between three finalists being held on the afternoon of the opening day at the Marine Parade shelters.

Top chef and local restaurateur Mark Hix and his head chef Lin Pidsley will be joined by Simon Bennett of the Old Watch House fishmonger at the Cobb, Tony Colston of By The Bay restaurant and Richard Reddaway of the Mariners Hotel to choose the winning dish, which will be judged on taste, presentation and creativity.

The winning dish will appear on the menu at HIX Oyster & Fish House in Lyme Regis the following week, and its creator will receive a complimentary dinner for two at the restaurant. The two runners-up will receive complimentary meals at By the Bay and The Mariners Hotel, and their dishes will be taken up by those venues the week following the festival.

Last year's popular Crab Feast will also return on June 7th in the Marine Theatre with all proceeds being donated to charity.

Lyme Regis Mackerel Festival, sponsored by West Country Catch, takes place the following month from July 4th to 11th.

The headline event scheduled for the opening night will be a panel discussion on sustainable fishing with an excellent line up to include chefs Mitch Tonks and Mark Hix, followed by a Mackerel Feast and auction hosted at the Marine Theatre.

The recipe competition finalists will be invited to join the judging panel for the recipe cook-off on Saturday, July 5th.

Other events during the festivals will include a curing and smoking demo by Mark Hix on July 8th in the shelters and an array of fun activities for the whole family. Crab and mackerel dishes will be celebrated and featured on menus around town throughout the festivals.

Residents say request to name new roads is 'cynical ploy' by developers

By Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedial.co.uk

AN OPPORTUNITY for residents to name the new roads at the Woodberry Down development site in Lyme Regis was not welcomed, as town councillors had hoped, by some local people.

Lyme Regis Town Council was recently asked to come up with names for the three roads which will run through the 46-house development off Colway Lane and decided it should be up to local people to decide their preferred names. But the request for ideas was not welcomed by those using the Lyme Regis "Soapbox" page on social networking site Facebook, who objected to the number of "luxury" houses to be built on the site.

Lyme Regis resident Matt Puddy, a keen observer of local affairs and administrator of the Facebook page, said the request for road names was a "cynical ploy" by developers Bloor Homes to get local people on side, describing the development as a "disgraceful wasted opportunity" which could have been used to provide more affordable housing for local people.

He added: "Help name the roads? No, town councillors, we'd rather name those who claim to represent our interests yet time and time again let us all down."

The development is to include 35 per cent affordable housing, equating to 16 of the 46 homes, including 11 rented houses (four two-bedroom and seven three-bedroom) and five shared ownership properties (four one-bedroom maisonettes and one two-bedroom house).

Since the planning application was submitted last year, members of the Facebook page have argued that they would have liked to have seen more low-cost housing specifically for local people and less "luxury" three to five-bedroom houses.

The Facebook debate led several residents to make sarcastic suggestions for the new road names, implying that the houses would become second homes or bought by those from out of town, including "Millionaires Row".

One resident asked: "Why do they need us to come up with names, it's not like we'll be living there."

Town council suggestions for names for the roads have included those linking to Lyme's literary links, such as Austen, Chesterton, Longfellow, Tolkien, Blake, Hollis and Fowles; those linking with Bermuda and Shakespeare's "The Tempest", thought to be based on the wreckage of the "Sea Venture" which led former Lyme Regis mayor, Admiral Sir George Somers, to colonise Bermuda - including Bermuda, Sea Venture, Prospero, Miranda and Caliban; those linking to fossils such as Ammonite Avenue and Lias Place; or Woodberry Lane, Close and Avenue.

Further sensible suggestions or preferred names can be sent to the town council by emailing admin@lymeregistowncouncil.gov.uk, call 01297 445175 or post to Mrs Adrienne Mullins, Lyme Regis Town Council, Town Council Offices, Guildhall Cottage, Church Street, Lyme Regis, DT7 3BS.

Talk on Lord of Catherston

CHARMOUTH Local History Society, known as the Pavey Group, will host a talk named "The Life and Times of Robert Hilyard" by Mike Seaman on Monday, March 24th.

The story will cover the life of Robert Hilyard, Lord of Catherston Manor and Foreign Office diplomat, from his early family life at the manor before it was remodelled to what it looks like today. It will also cover countries battling political and social upheaval and back to Catherston and his untimely death.

The audience will be given a flavour of how things were done in the 19th century, as well as Hildyard's work in the Foreign Office, run at the time by a league of gentlemen who ruled, or believed they ruled, over all that they surveyed, his relationships and strange circumstances surrounding his death.

The talk will be held at 7.30pm in The Elms conference room on The Street and is free to members, £1.50 for non-members.

RED ARROWS TO RETURN!

THE Red Arrows are set to return to Lyme Regis this summer as part of the Lifeboat Week programme.

The Lyme Regis and Charmouth RNLI Guild, organisers of the annual fundraising week, have confirmed that the popular RAF aerobatic team are set to fly in on Thursday, July 24th. They will follow the RAF Falcons Parachute Display Team due to appear on Sunday, July 20th.

Times for both displays are yet to be confirmed.

Brie saving lives at sea!

■ BRIE-LLIANT FUNDRAISER: Justin Tunstall of the Town Mill Cheesemonger with his brie boxes

SINCE opening almost five years ago, Lyme Regis' much-lauded Town Mill Cheesemonger has used a novel system to dispose of the elegant brie boxes in which the famous French cheeses arrive.

In exchange for a £2 donation to the shop's counter-top RNLI collection boat, happy foodies take the boxes away to decorate their kitchens, or to use as serving trays.

Justin Tunstall, owner of the Town Mill Cheesemonger, said: "We've swapped almost 100 of these for donations to the RNLI, raising over £200 in the process but we're building up a surplus once more and there's probably good homes waiting for the dozen or so currently cluttering a corner of the shop.

"Until the Easter school holidays, the shop is open only from Thursday to Sunday, so please don't come down with a shiny £2 coin in the early part of the week."

The team at Town Mill Cheesemonger recently won the accolade as the UK's Cheesemonger of the Year and is off to collect the award at Birmingham's NEC on Monday.

Rotarians support Somerset flood victims

ROTARIANS from Lyme Regis and their partners visited the flood-stricken Somerset Levels to help man a warehouse near Bridgewater where people, many of whom had lost virtually everything, can get free material aid to help them start again.

Clothes, bedding, curtains, food, household wares, cleaning equipment, waders, boots and more have been donated from individuals and businesses, including Tesco, Asda and Marks & Spencer. Smaller stores and firms, some from as far away as Yorkshire, have also donated huge quantities of goods. If the organisers want something urgently, they post a message of social networking website Facebook or make a pleading telephone call and it gets delivered the next day.

Many of the grateful residents receiving items were awaiting insurance companies settling claims while others had tales of being let down by their insurance companies. Many, including farmers, were setting up home temporarily in caravans until they could get their homes repaired and, in some cases, virtually rebuilt so temporarily might mean over a year or 18 months.

The warehouse is being run by a local family who originally responded to a suggestion on Facebook by the local office of a national company and took some clothes and household goods to the company's warehouse. While they were there, several tons of goods were delivered by like-minded people and companies and it became clear that a bigger facility and a management team would be required if this was to continue. The family took on the task of managing the enterprise in a huge warehouse near Bridgewater, again donated free of cost by a major firm.

Meanwhile, Rotary has been helping construct gravel footpaths near Moorland and, learning of the warehouse, offered to help by providing manpower.

Rotary and Inner Wheel Clubs from all over Dorset are taking turns in helping man the warehouse under the direction of the family managing the enterprise. This is a huge effort, involving upwards of a couple of hundred Rotarians and Inner Wheelers.

They have done this for several weeks now and will continue to do so as long as required. The gratitude of the local people is clear evidence that the service is needed and much-appreciated.

Meanwhile, Rotary continues to help within the areas flooded, including Moorland and Fordgate, by providing assistance, financial and practical, where most needed.

The George fundraising for prostate cancer

THE George in Charmouth has chosen Prostate Cancer UK as its chosen charity of the year and is hoping to raise £3,000 through a number of special events.

The pub chooses a charity to support each year and has raised thousands for good causes.

The pub is taking part in Prostate Cancer UK's 10,000 Challenge, representing the 10,000 men who die from the disease each year. The charity has asked supporters to hold fundraisers linked to the number 10,000.

The George hopes to collect 10,000 five pence coins and local lads will be taking part in a 10,000-feet pub walk around Lyme Regis on Saturday, July 5th, collecting money on the way.

The pub is also hosting a weekly meat draw, Easter bingo on Saturday, March 29th with eyes down at 7.30pm and a cake sale at The Arcade, Charmouth, on Saturday, May 3rd from 10am.

On Saturday, May 10th there will be a round robin games night at the pub and a cricket match between The George and Otter Brewery will be held on Wednesday, June 18th at 6.15pm at Uplyme cricket pitch.

Pub staff and regulars are also in the process of shooting a male calendar for 2015.

Local artist selected to design children's game

LOCAL artist, author and town councillor Rikey Austin has been selected by the Greenboard Game Company to illustrate their latest BrainBox game, named "Mr Maker's Colour & Create".

Councillor Austin, known locally for her popular teddy bear books, has received first delivery of the new games from the award-winning company at her Broad Street shop, Alice's Bear Shop.

Mr Maker, from the CBeebies arts and crafts show for children, encourages children to be confident with art and "have a go" themselves. With this in mind, Rikey was asked to create 56 line drawings that children colour in themselves and then use as part of the clever, memory game.

As with all of the BrainBox games, there are questions on the back of the cards that relate to the picture on the front and this one leaves the final question for the children to write themselves, pushing their creativity even further.

The object of the BrainBox games is to study one of the many cards in the box for 10 seconds and then answer a question about it based on the roll of a die. If the question is answered correctly, the card is kept and the person with the most cards after 10 minutes wins.

This is the fourth BrainBox game that Councillor Austin has created, along with Teddy Bears, Fairies and Learning French. The fun and educational game, which retails at £14, is one of a range of BrainBox games stocked at Alice's Bear Shop.

Turn Lyme Green visits Trill Farm

MEMBERS of eco-group Turn Lyme Green recently spent an interesting evening at Trill Farm.

The group were given a talk by Edward Kosier, a chemist and academic for 23 years before spending the last 14 years working commercially with the recycling of plastics packaging, the design of modern plants and several patented recycling breakthroughs.

He is heavily involved as an expert consultant to leading research bodies, industry associations and environmental pressure groups.

Mr Kosier discussed the progress which has been made in tackling the problem of environmental waste and members were particularly interested to hear that in Britain, despite a slow start, we are now among the leading developed countries because we have the most up-to-date methods of recycling.

Recycling includes food waste, tins, cardboard, paper, bottles and plastics. Plastics are complex and have to be separated, but they can all be reused. Bottles are no longer washed and reused as in the past, but are often recycled for road marking.

Turn Lyme Green took part in Climate Change Week events earlier in March, including a talk by weather forecaster Michael Fish in Dorchester, organised by Communities Living Sustainably, as well as a poetry night with Matt Harvey, a Listening Walk at Langdon

Show and tell for photo club members

LYME Bay Photographic Club members enjoyed a "Show and Tell" evening when several colleagues brought slides, prints and portfolios which allowed them to revive memories of their lives through photography.

The evening opened when Jennifer Hollands showed the only remaining print from her successful LRPS panel from 1995 and explained how she had started photography after meeting her husband when they were at school together.

Rob Hunt followed and showed views the city of London from the top of the newly opened Shard building and displayed some of his favourite pictures of Santorini which he'd had printed on canvas. Chris Sellers took a walk down memory lane when he displayed pictures of his return journey to Belize 20 years later.

Jane Pennington reviewed her LRPS portfolio, featuring the now defunct rope-making industry of Bridport, which under local tutors Ron Frampton and Joy White, had taken five years to complete. John Moore showed a picture of a ship he had once captained and posed several insoluble questions about it. He was followed by club member Mary Bull, who closed the first half with a few of her pictures of oddly worded signs that amused the audience.

The second half began with images from Jenny

Wallis who had, as she was unable to attend, written notes to accompany them. She explained how she favoured symmetry and patterns and her work was well received by club members, especially as all her images were pin sharp.

Mary then returned to show some of her early slides taken when she first travelled abroad with her husband, John, and the evening was rounded off with Ron Ghost reviving memories of old Lyme with some of his pictures taken in the 1970s and 80s, including several featuring the landslip in the Langmoor Gardens.

Everyone enjoyed these walks down memory lane and thanked the members who had brought items along in what turned out to be a most interesting evening.

The next meeting is on Friday, March 28th when Stephen Banks from Bridport will show his time lapse photographs of the night sky. The club meets fortnightly and anyone with an interest in photography is welcome to come and meet members. ## News in a Nutshell

Spring has sprung at Lyme Regis Museum

AFTER a dramatic winter of storms battering the building, Lyme Regis Museum welcomes the coming of spring with a number of special events.

The museum will be switching to its summer opening hours on Monday, March 31st meaning it will be open every day from 10am to 5pm.

As well as the usual programme of fossil, Mary Anning and history walks, the museum is offering three events sponsored by the Heritage Lottery Fund and Dorset Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Richard and Barbara Bull, volunteer researchers who put on the popular exhibition "Lost Buildings of Lyme", return with a new exhibition of paintings from the museum's reserve collections of landscapes from our area, named "Drawing Inspiration".

This time they celebrate the inspiration which artists have drawn from the local landscape, our own Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Featured in the display will be an 1820 picture of Lyme Bay by Sydney Jessett, whose work will be showcased later in the year, works by Michael Blooman and a picture of the "Fish Lizard of Lyme", kindly donated to the museum by artist Carolyn King.

The special exhibition will be held from April 2nd until early May with a formal opening at the museum from 7pm to 8pm on April 11th when you can meet Richard and Barbara Bull.

■ THE Friends of Lyme Regis Museum's latest talk will be named "Hidden history: Slavery in Dorset" by Jane Ferentzi-Sheppard.

The talk will be held at the Woodmead Halls on Thursday, April 3rd at about 3pm following the museum annual general meeting at 2.30pm.

Admission is free, including refreshments, with voluntary donations welcome.

■ FURY FRIENDS: Ferrets Alice and Jacob with their Kingston Maurward College handlers Hannah Ring, Chrissie Rolfe, Stephen Hiley, Clare Bacon and Maxine Larcombe

Ferrets a hit with society

SUPPORTERS of Uplyme and Lyme Regis Horticultural Society fussed over and photographed the seven ferrets that made up the racecard at their fundraising night on Friday.

Handlers Chrissie Rolfe and Stephen Hiley of the Animal Care Unit at Kingston Maurward College, supported by students Hannah Ring, Clare Bacon and Maxine Larcombe, demonstrated great care and knowledge of their tiny charges.

Ferrets Speedy Sarah, Roger-the-Dodger, Zara Zoom, Alice, Jacob, Summer and Blossom raced with prizes worth over £300 up for grabs for lucky punters.

Between races Alasdair Marshall of Spice & Rice served the 120 guests with a choice from five of his curry menus.

The horticultural society's next meeting is on Wednesday, March 26th with a short annual general meeting at 7.30pm followed by a talk at 8pm from Nick Rigden, head of horticulture at Cannington College.

Nick's illustrated talk, "Making the Most of Veg", is designed to inspire his audience to grow their own fresh crops, whether in a big garden or just a few planters, and will confirm that producing vegetables is as satisfying as it is healthy.

Nick has been involved in horticultural education for over 40 years and is a senior examiner for the Royal Horticultural Society. His broad knowledge and practical experience of gardening, exhibiting and judging brings natural authority to his talks.

Afterwards will be an opportunity to ask questions and enjoy a cup of tea or coffee and homemade cake. Admission is free to members or £3 for non-members.

Visit the Uplyme and Lyme Regis Horticultural Society's website to see their programme of talks, events and outings for the coming year at <http://ulrhs.wordpress.com/events/>

ART AT THE TOWN MILL

■ JURASSIC ART: Jules Critchinson with her work displayed as part of 'The Jurassic Exhibition' at the Town Mill Malthouse

JULES Critchinson is just one of many artists exhibiting in a new exhibition at the Town Mill Malthouse, inspired by the Jurassic Coast.

This Tryptich pictured above was inspired by outcrops of rock in Kagberi in Nepal. The lias clay, used as part of the work, was collected from the Kali Gandaki (the river) where ammonites are also found.

This work was first shown in The Jam Factory in Uplyme last year as part of the series of re:collection exhibitions during ArtsFest, linked to displays in Lyme Regis Museum.

The picture is one of many works inspired by the geology of the local coast and "The Jurassic Exhibition" will be running up to the end of March. It should be open from 10.30am to 4.30pm daily with free admission.

"The Profiles Exhibition" is still running in the Courtyard Gallery where visitors can learn more about local artists. This is also open from 10.30am to 4.30pm with free admission.

Is the Pearl losing its gloss?

ARE the media darlings falling out of love with Lyme Regis?

I am prompted to ask this question after noticing that "the Pearl of Dorset" failed to make the Sunday Times' Top 101 places to live in Britain.

When national publications trot out such lists, Lyme usually features somewhere.

A few years back I think it was The Sun which named Lyme as the most romantic place in the country and the town council made good publicity capital out of it.

Lyme Matters

by Philip Evans

But we failed to creep into the Sunday Times' Best Places To Live In Britain.

The Times admitted selecting the Top 101 was a challenge. They said their intention was to "celebrate real towns for real people", whatever that means. Their methodology relied on lots of hard data about crime rates, house prices and school performances, as well as the expertise of their writers, a team of select bloggers and the views of their readers who were asked to tweet their thoughts.

We would have surely met part of the criteria: we are virtually crime free in Lyme and we have good schools. We may have scored a black mark on house prices as in another list published not so long ago we were in the top five of the most expensive resorts to live in England and Wales.

Perhaps we just didn't tweet enough.

So which towns and villages near us did get themselves into the Top 101?

Branscombe, just eight miles down the Devon coastline topped the South West locations with the adjudicators apparently impressed by it having the longest street (surely that should be lane) in Devon, two pubs and its own brewery.

Hang on minute, take a look at our main street. And we have two breweries.

Sherborne also did well and it would be difficult to argue The Times' view that it is a "drop-dead gorgeous" town.

I'm not sure that appearing on such lists has any real benefit to a town like ours. After all, Lyme gets more than its fair share of positive coverage in the national press and I for one count my blessings every day that I am able to live and work in Dorset's unrivalled "Pearl".

Guildhall Gossip

BY-ELECTION: AS predicted in my last column, there will definitely be a by-election to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Daryl Turner.

Ten electors called for an election, as is the requirement, and voting will take place on May 22nd at the same time as the Euro elections. The closing date for nominations is 4pm on Thursday, April 24th.

I suspect the timing of Daryl's departure was deliberate to coincide with the Euro elections so that his resignation did not place a financial burden on the electorate.

Apparently, it costs around £5,000 to stage an election in Lyme and town clerk John Wright informs me the cost is met by West Dorset District Council, unlike East Devon where the cost is passed on to the parishes.

MAYORAL MANOEUVRES: Jockeying has already started over the appointment of the next mayor. Town councillors will be choosing the mayor elect at full council on Thursday, April 2nd.

At least one councillor has started sounding out her colleagues about possible support and I know of one other who is also considering putting his name forward.

The big question is whether last year's defeated candidate Chris Clipson will try again and there's a rumour circulating the town that the present mayor, Sally Holman, may even be offered a fourth term.

If that is the case, she would become only the second councillor to do so - the uber-popular Henry Broom served for four years in the 1970s.

The West End comes to Lyme Regis...

I'm not a great cinemagoer. I think the last full feature film I saw at The Regent was "Ghandi".

This is clearly a character flaw for we are so lucky to have The Regent in Lyme, said to be the smallest town in the country with a year-round cinema.

Like most Lyme-born boys, I did go to the flicks regularly as a youngster, often on Saturday mornings when there was usually a cartoon followed by a cowboy film.

As we got older most locals would go on a Sunday night when it often got quite rowdy and the owner, Donald "Spike" Hardy, would invariably have to interrupt the main feature and get up on stage to warn us about our unruly behaviour.

Going home down Sherborne Lane it was custom for one of us to be pushed through the door of undertaker Boswell's spooky house and then run all the way home.

I did, however, spend a brilliantly enjoyable night at The Regent recently to see the live streaming of the National Theatre's stage version of "War Horse" which is now playing all over the world to great acclaim.

Streaming live theatre shows into remote sites at community halls and cinemas is a recent innovation which is really catching on. The Regent, superbly refurbished now by Scott Cinemas, was packed for "War Horse" and I understand that a number of similar screenings are planned for the future.

On a recent visit to London I nearly paid £86 a ticket to see a West End show. I think admission for "War Horse" at The Regent cost around £13 - so the West End comes to Lyme at a fraction of the cost.

As I say, how lucky are we? A town of 3,500 population with its own 12-months a year cinema and a theatre that provides live entertainment all year round.

Beaminster Flowers

BEAMINSTER Flowers is under new management – but this won't affect the bespoke, friendly service you've become used to, as the new owner is Helen Stebbings NDF, who has been the Senior Florist there for the past three years.

Helen has over 20 years experience as a highly qualified florist, and can boast to have won an award at the coveted Chelsea Flower Show amongst other things, such as designing wedding flowers for use in the spectacular St Paul's Cathedral in London.

Some of you may remember her as 'Bluebell', from when, at the age of just 21, she successfully built up a business as a newly qualified florist in Charmouth. Helen put her career on hold whilst she had very young children, but now is very much back, and as she still lives in the Charmouth area, is also able to serve towns and villages much further afield than Beaminster itself.

'Beaminster Flowers' is purposely not a member of a large relay service, such as Interflora, which allows it complete freedom in design, and therefore every single order can be tailored to the individual's needs, giving superb value for money.

With Mothering Sunday just around the corner, and the wedding season approaching fast, pop in to see what Beaminster Flowers has to offer, or phone Helen on 01308 863173 with any enquiries.

MONDAY 24TH TO SUNDAY 30TH MARCH 2014

CELEBRATING BUTCHERS' CREATIVITY AND PASSION

C & D. E Pattimore

C & D. E Pattimore Family Butchers has been a familiar face in the area for over 30 years.

The original butchers on Coombe Street in Lyme Regis closed after Mr Pattimore senior retired from shop 8 years ago. Son Christopher and daughter in law Debbie then took over the butchers shop in Charmouth in 2006.

Chris and his wife Debbie pride themselves on buying and selling local meats and produce, and are pleased to announce that they will soon be stockists of Gotland Lamb from Whitehall Farm, Honiton.

THE seventh National Butchers' Week, which takes place between Monday, March 24th, and Sunday, March 30th, is launching a new campaign to teach the Internet generation how to shop for meat.

The leading industry magazine Meat Trades Journal, which organises the Week with the support of key industry sponsors, is using the occasion to create an online 'Idiot's Guide to the Butcher's Shop' to help young people pluck up the courage to pay their high street butcher a visit.

The annual event will also be highlighting the unique service provided by butcher's shops including their many unusual, exciting and often cheap cuts of meat which people simply can't find in their local supermarket, as well as showing customers how to cook them.

The measures are among a number taking place nationwide throughout the Week, which promises to be bigger and better than ever with butchers, schools and consumers all set to take part.

Dozens of special recipes to try out before, during and after National Butchers' Week - all celebrating the UK's rich heritage as a nation of meat lovers - can be found on this site.

Thousands of butchers throughout the country will also be holding special events throughout the Week, ranging from taster sessions aimed at enticing young people to sausage making demonstrations, which shoppers can take part in by dropping in at their local butcher.

If your planning something for National Butchers' Week, then drop us a line and let us know by contacting the editor of Meat Trades Journal, Ed Bedington on 01293 846567, or email him on ed.bedington@wrmb.co.uk.

LymeLetters

What are we in all together?

■ CHRIS Boothroyd's "All in it together?" column (View From Lyme Regis, March 12th) was typically eloquent and thoughtful.

His plan to explore (in future "Another View" columns) what he describes as "the town's relatively unsung voluntary services" is very, very welcome.

Also welcome, alongside his stated plan to cover various areas of activity, would be exploration of various issues that are shared by many of them.

For example, Chris writes about "the reality that communities must increasingly look after their own rather than rely on publicly-funded authorities". In the considerable changes of this emerging Big Society (as it was at one time referred to) isn't it sensible that we talk openly about how it will work?

Or are we one day going to be talking about it in the way we have been hearing about the dismal and tragic recent history of the Co-operative Society... a great idea and huge amounts to be proud of, but how was it actually working when it got into such a muddle, and who was keeping track?

The Community Land Trust is another great idea. But, when Chris writes that it is "accountable to the Lyme community", what does that actually mean, and when and how does the accountability happen?

As time allows, I'll send another letter to the View From Lyme Regis about that. But it would be great if Chris could provide further information and analysis as well.

Later, I'll try to raise some other Big Society issues for discussion. A number come to mind.

Do we need to consider the possibility of there being "winners and losers", in the same way that questions about unpaid internships for graduates are rather belatedly being asked?

Should giving one's time and resources be its own reward, or is it reasonable for volunteers to receive accolades, privileges, influence and even power in return?

We expect close media scrutiny of the standards of conduct and conflicts of interest in the political management of our community. Should we expect something similar in what Chris calls "our communal can do" attitude, and how volunteering drives it?

Perhaps all and any volunteering is good? Or do we need to remember Abe Lincoln's words of wisdom, loosely adapted here, about it being impossible to be good for all of the people all of the time?

And what is "community"? Ever since the 2009 town meeting when one of its officers said about LymeForward that "we are the community", I have been left wondering whether everyone would define "community" in the same way.

And, finally, if this letter seems uncharitable to those who are giving their time, why is it that we instinctively take a generous view towards them, while generally not behaving in the same way to those who volunteer to be councillors and willingly subject themselves to much greater levels of scrutiny?

The full headline of Chris's excellent article was "All in it together? Yes, we are". I hope that this letter and any that follow, whether from me or anyone else, will help all of us to think and talk about what we are all in together, and how.

Is being good enough or should we always strive for better?

ROGER Grose of Uplyme Church writes:
"This Thursday is World Storytelling Day and to mark it, Uplyme Church is to welcome Canadian storyteller Ron Baker.

"The day is a global celebration of the art of storytelling when people across the world tell and listen to stories in many languages and different places. Storytellers share their events and stories to learn from each other and so create international contacts and promote storytelling as an art form.

"Ron has been telling stories since childhood, as an actor in community theatre, as a Lay Reader in the church and finally as a professional storyteller. One of his ambitions was to tell the narrative story of the Bible from beginning to end, and he achieved this in his own church in Ontario.

View from the churches

"Ron's stories are never written down. He enters fully into the Biblical characters and lets them speak for themselves.

"Whenever he is in England, Ron attends Uplyme Church and he is kindly giving his services to help raise money for church funds.

"The storytelling begins at 7pm. Tickets are £5 for adults with children free, available from the church administrator on 01297 444499 or Uplyme Garage. It promises to be a fascinating and captivating evening, which appeals to all ages."

Jordan's Jewellers

SANDY Jordan opened JORDAN'S JEWELLERS in May last year, having spent the last few years selling at antiques fairs. Being a local girl, Sandy wanted to bring her knowledge and experience to the people of Dorchester and felt that the town needed a shop where customers could find new, pre-owned and antique pieces which make the perfect gifts.

Perhaps you have been given a piece of jewellery that you wouldn't really wear, take that piece to the team at Jordan's Jewellers who are passionate about jewellery and are able to re-design old pieces so that they still carry the sentiment.

The stock in the shop changes a lot and Sandy still does some antiques fairs. There are watches from as little as £40 to antique Cartier items so there is something for every budget.

The light and airy shop offers a warm welcome and a light-hearted yet professional approach. Why not pop in for something special this Mother's Day? With gifts starting from £10, including pendants, earrings and much more!

Susan Gale

Do you need a bit of help?

THE most capable of us can struggle sometimes. Especially if you're too busy helping other people or trying to lighten their load.

And once the pattern is set, it can be impossible to change it yourself, however much you feel you "should" be able to.

Hypnotherapy can give you the help you need to break out of the trap and change for the better. To enjoy life for a change. To make the most of your life. To make the most of yourself.

And of course, the better you are in yourself, the easier it is to help those you care about.

Susan Gale of the Beltain

Centre in Dorchester qualified as a Hypnotherapist in 1989 and has helped many people clear many different problems over the years. She can help you break free.

Her down to earth approach and practical solutions can make such a difference. She puts the emphasis on getting you better instead of delving into ancient history. And she tailors the therapy to your needs to get you better as soon as possible.

Take a look at www.beltain.co.uk or phone 01305 267069 to discover how she could help you.

Dorset Kitchens

DORSET Kitchens are based at the Horn Park Business Centre, on the Broadwindsor road.

The firm is family run and their ethos is to build a good working relationship with their customers and turn their dreams into reality.

The company specialises in handmade Kitchens, made from solid wood. They also make bespoke furniture for every room in the home.

The company employs 18 local people, ranging from fitters to cabinet makers and painters to designers.

All their Kitchens are made in their factory just outside Beaminster. They are sold direct to the public, cutting out that "middle man" and making their Kitchens extremely competitive cost wise.

The business serves the local community but also works farther afield.

They have also worked abroad and have carried out work as far as Valencia in Spain and Tuscany in Italy to name just a couple. In two months time they will be fitting a Kitchen in the middle of France!

At present their showrooms have nine kitchens on display, but in the next three months the firm will be opening a brand new showroom on their premises, taking their display of kitchens up to 15. There will also be a free standing furniture section.

The new showroom will have a lot more for customers to see, including some of the new designs that are coming into popularity.

Their opening hours are Mondays to Fridays 9.00am to 5.00pm and Saturdays, 10.00am to 2.00pm.

Beaminster Flowers

BEAMINSTER Flowers is under new management – but this won't affect the bespoke, friendly service you've become used to, as the new owner is Helen Stebbings NDF, who has been the Senior Florist there for the past three years.

Helen has over 20 years experience as a highly qualified florist, and can boast to have won an award at the coveted Chelsea Flower Show amongst other things, such as designing wedding flowers for use in the spectacular St Paul's Cathedral in London.

Some of you may remember her as 'Bluebell', from when, at the age of just 21, she successfully built up a business as a newly qualified florist in Charmouth. Helen put her career on hold whilst she had very young children, but now is very much back, and as she still lives in the Charmouth area, is also able to serve towns and villages much further afield than Beaminster itself.

'Beaminster Flowers' is purposely not a member of a large relay service, such as Interflora, which allows it complete freedom in design, and therefore every single order can be tailored to the individual's needs, giving superb value for money.

With Mothering Sunday just around the corner, and the wedding season approaching fast, pop in to see what Beaminster Flowers has to offer, or phone Helen on 01308 863173 with any enquiries.

The Deli On The Square

THE Deli On The Square is up and running. Offering quality products, many from local suppliers as it supports the residents of Beaminster and the surrounding area.

Following our launch, we have asked everyone that has entered the shop, what they would like a Beaminster Deli to sell and have had nearly 100 requests. Some customers even creating lists of items. Part of the great service offered by the Deli is to try and source these items in order to keep shoppers in the Town and therefore minimise the amount of travelling that customers have to undertake to get their products.

We have helped cater for dinner parties and small gatherings alike and are ideal for picking up something when popping around to some friends and looking to take something as a gift.

Our range includes items such as Fudges biscuits, various culinary products including bread making flour, customer requested cheeses, local Denhay bacon and Dorset Farms ham, dressings and vinegars, olives, olive oils and Europe's finest Tuna. We also have a good range of Teas and Coffees inspired or requested by customers.

We not only offer award winning "Chunk" pies and savouries but also Artisan bread to order, from Leakers Bakery in Bridport, delivered fresh the day it is required. We are also in the process of obtaining a wine licence. We are not planning on selling beers and spirits, just great quality wines and maybe a couple of local ciders.

In addition, in the future we are looking to sell cakes, quiches, tarts and additional savoury items.

Please pop in, receive a nice warm welcome and see for yourself. Remember, if we don't have it please ask and we can probably get it for you. 01308 862954.

Purrfect Guests Boarding Cattery

THIS winter has been a challenge to most of us in Dorset and Somerset, and for Val and Dave at Purrfect Guests Boarding Cattery in Mosterton the gale force winds brought a LOT of weather!

After 9 wonderful months running the business, they realised that their lovely cattery needed a new roof after storm damage took its toll on the original. The new roof is stronger to create a quieter, dryer, warmer environment in the winter, and tinted to create a cooler environment in the hot summer months ahead!

Purrfect Guests is making a name for itself in the area, not least because of the care and attention all the feline guests receive as soon as they arrive. "We all love our pets and want them to be safe and content while we have a holiday or something calls us away from home," says Val, "and a well fed, comfortable and loved cat is a happy cat, and we are proud that we achieve this." All needs are catered for, from a 3 month kitten to a grand old lady of 22 years – the former, lots of attention and toys, the latter lots of attention and a cosy bed!

All feeds are monitored, and if a particular food isn't a success, something else is provided from the well stocked kitchen. This winter all the guests were provided with a soft blanket as well as the usual fleecies, with the indoor chalet area thermostatically heated throughout the night. Each outer area has a shelf, raised scratch post and a small chair, all with a fleece cover. Even a soft doormat by the door so they can look out at the chickens and ducks in comfort – nothing is too much trouble for these two it would seem!

"We care when you can't be there."

Fancy That Cake Company

Fancy That - who wouldn't?

HEATHER Upham's creative talents at Fancy That Cake Company take cake-making beyond the everyday and into the realms of sculpted works of art. The opening of a new shop in November 2012 in Fleet Street, Beaminster took her aspirations up a gear with a dedicated kitchen and retail space for displaying cakes and selling cake decorating sundries.

Her professionalism has been recognised with six awards - four silvers and two bronzes - from Cake International's showcase exhibitions in London and Birmingham and other awards from the British Sugar Guild.

aircraft Guild.

The increase in business and the popularity of her amazing cakes is such that Heather has taken on a new member of staff, a fellow Sugarcraft Guild member, to help ease the workload. The fast growing customer base is hungry for their skills in wedding cakes - whether traditional or quirky - 3-D birthday, anniversary or celebration cakes and Fancy That's Facebook page is testament to the growing band of 'Likers', many of whom come back for more!

DODGY HEADLINE BRIDPORT'S FIRST MUSIC FESTIVAL

Jurassic Fields Music Festival takes place this July

POWER pop rock trio Dodgy who rose to prominence during the Britpop era of the 1990s are to headline Bridport's first music festival this summer.

The Jurassic Fields Music Festival which takes place at Asker Meadows on Saturday July 12th is a daylong not for profit event that will not only feature a number of musical performances, but will also include a comedy stage and lots of events for the family including a fun fair and children's area.

As well as Dodgy who had hits with "Staying Out for the Summer", "If You're Thinking of Me", and "Good Enough" who will feature on the main stage, Weymouth band The Leggomen who have developed a large set list with a blend of modern pop & rock as well as older classic songs will headline the acoustic stage.

Other bands who will be appearing include Jonathan Cotton, The Transitions, Vanilla Radio, The Mutter Slater Band, Funky Munks, The Rising, Sam Rich, Daisy Wardle, Peter James Milson, Mr B the Gentlemen Rhymers, Shelby's Elbows and Peter Crawford.

To find out more about the bands playing as well as links to their music you can follow the following link on the events brand new webpage: jurassicfields.com/band-biographies/.

Topping the bill on the comedy stage is Joel Dommett who was the face of MTV in 2012 and presented their daily news bulletins.

He also worked on the live new Channel 4 after show, Live in Chelsea, How to Survive a Disaster Movie (Channel 5) and the hugely successful Impractical Jokers (BBC3).

He is one of the fastest rising stars on the UK comedy circuit having gained rave reviews for his debut solo Edinburgh show, Neon Hero, in 2011 and second show 'Nunchuck Silver Medallist 2002' in 2012 and has since performed stand up on Russell Howard's Good News on BBC Three.

The festival will feature local talent as well as up and coming bands from around the South West as well as a number of food and clothing stalls.

Daniel Broom, one of the organisers with Scott Morris said: "The festival is aimed at being a community event for all the family and is not for profit. Eighty percent of any profit generated from this year's event will be re-invested to hopefully improve and expand next year's."

"The other 20 per cent will split equally between local music projects in and around West Dorset and a local charity or club chosen by the committee which we are planning to establish."

"For the first year this will be donated to Bridport Football Club in recognition of their support of the festival at its early stages."

The festival will run from 10am until 11pm with a continuous flow of music throughout the day.

"The two stages will complement each other to allow a continuous flow of music throughout the day, and will consist of mainly local bands with Dodgy headlining on the main stage to close the festival."

"We will be running various fundraising events in the run-up to the festival and hopefully hosting a competition giving a local winner from an open mic night the chance to perform on one of the stages."

"As well as the music we will be hosting a comedy cavern in the marquee bar. There will be a children's area with various entertainment and workshops taking place to keep them occupied throughout the day as well as a fun fair, together with a number of food stalls as well as local stall holders selling their goods."

The organisers have had superb support from a number of local businesses and organisations that have sponsored the festival.

Mr Broom added: "We are extremely grateful to all our sponsors who have supported us in what is a community event. It is something that has been missing from West Dorset, and we hope that we can help fill it."

Tickets are on sale now and can be obtained from Bridport, Sherborne, Dorchester or Lyme Regis Tourist Information Offices, or you can also call 01308 424901 or visit the website at <http://www.jurassicfields.com>.

TURNING TIMES New collaboration at Arts Centre Story Café

STORYTELLER Jane Flood, harpist Martin Solomon and singer Dymphna Skehill have created a new collaboration for their Story Café performance at Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, March 21st.

Word, music and voice wrap around each other as these three fantastic performers bring an exploration of the changes that happen at the time of the Vernal Equinox. Using story, song and harp, they will evoke and challenge the great whirling wheel of time, the dance of life and the small questions that leave us spinning. There will be laughs, wry smiles and maybe a few furrowed brows but the evening will leave you heart-warmed, content and thoughtful.

Their collaboration has been described as "like being wrapped in the softest velvet and rocked gently ... Jane's eloquent wordsmithing, teamed up with Martin's exquisite harp playing and Dymphna's sultry voice, was as rich a tapestry of images and sound as one could wish for".

Doors open at 7pm and the storytelling begins at 7.30pm. The evening is suitable for adults and older children. Tickets are £7 / £6 members / £5 concessions available from Bridport Arts Centre box office 01308 424204 and via the website www.bridport-arts.com

Church concert by Organ Scholar

THE Friends of Beaminster Festival continue the theme of supporting young performers in St Mary's Church, Beaminster on Saturday, April 5th at 3pm, with a recital on the Skrabl organ by Glen Dempsey. Glen is currently Organ Scholar at St George's Chapel Windsor and has recently won the Organ Scholarship to St John's College Cambridge.

At the age of fourteen he conducted Handel's Messiah when he was a student at the Purcell School.

He is already in demand as an organist, pianist and conductor as well as singing in the Rodolfus Choir. He also accompanies the Windsor and Eton Choral Society and the Eton Choral Society at Eton College.

Glen has a particular love of music from the Baroque period and his specially chosen programme to suite the Beaminster organ will include pieces by Bach, Mendelssohn and Schumann.

Tickets for this concert at £12 are available from The Yarn Barton Centre, Fleet Street, Beaminster Tel 01308 862715, and Bridport Music, 33a South Street, Bridport, tel 01308 424707, or on the door.

Two new recruits for Lyme Regis Operatic Society's Mame

LYME Regis Operatic Society has two new young recruits who auditioned to take part in the forthcoming production of "Mame" at the Marine Theatre in May. Pictured here with Nicky Sweetland, who will be playing the lead role, Alfie Bullmore (above, right) and Anthony Duncan (left) both attend Woodroffe School, having moved from Salisbury and Hertfordshire respectively roughly 18 months ago.

Alfie, the taller but younger of the two, has taken part in the Mayflower production of "Evita", through Stagecoach. He attended the Shanty Theatre Summer School here in 2012 and the Dorchester Theatre School last summer. He has also performed a streetdance following workshops and classes with Bournemouth Dance Studio.

Anthony has taken part in the West End production of "The Wizard of Oz" as a Munchkin! Now a member of Lyme Youth Theatre, Anthony has taken part in local fundraising shows and school productions such as "Bugsy" and the school cabaret in which he performed a piece from the musical "Billy Elliott". He is also currently rehearsing for a performance at the Sadlers Wells Theatre with Skye Dance Group in Axminster.

Both boys are enjoying rehearsals with the cast of "Mame" and have fitted in with enthusiasm. They will share the role with three performances each playing Patrick Dennis, the 10-year old orphaned nephew of the New York socialite Mame Dennis. She brings the boy up in a most unconventional manner with wild parties and gin parlours until the Wall Street Crash wipes her out. Several lost jobs later, she meets millionaire Beauregard Burnside (Dan Edwards) whom she marries and tours the world on honeymoon. Sadly, he manages to fall off the Matterhorn fatally, and Mame returns to New York to a grown-up nephew who needs her guidance. Also requiring direction of a different kind, is Agnes Gooch (Kelly Apps) - the frumpy nanny to Patrick - which Mame and her soul mate, Vera Charles (Tracey Wakeling) attend to with gusto.

An hilarious show, it is a fast moving extravaganza with plenty of song and dance for the chorus ~ choreographed by Rachel Worsley. Set in the 1920/30s during the prohibition and moving through to 1946, this story has given our wardrobe mistress, Maureen Yell, more than her fair share of headaches with double, or even treble, the costumes for each performer in the relevant eras. Nick Lawrence, hard-working Musical Director and Director, has also had his work cut out with 25 named characters and 10 unnamed characters in the show - this is his 18th production for LROS and he rises to the challenge every time!

Evening performances will commence at 7.15pm to make sure our youngsters finish on time and tickets will be on sale on April 7th at Fortnam Smith & Banwell, priced at £12 each with concessions for under 16s at £5. Also, for each block of ten seats sold goes one free ticket for the Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evening performances. The Saturday matinee will start at 2.30pm.

New ellipse – West Bay's New Bistro and Bar

ellipse in West Bay has just been transformed and given a new, contemporary look with a striking new bar at the heart of it.

The bar lights the whole restaurant, and with draft beers, real ale, and a new wine list, customers are more than welcome to come in just for a drink. The new bar is uniquely designed with an extra large surface, perfect to eat at, or to just sit and chat with friends over a drink.

ellipse still pride themselves on serving authentic Italian food, the way it would be cooked in Italy. Everything is made fresh, in house, from good quality local ingredients including the pizza dough. Away from the new bar there are still plenty of tables that boast stunning panoramic views of Lyme Bay through glass walls, which arch around from the east to the south cliff. Sunsets can be truly spectacular, setting over Lyme Bay, flooding the interior with golden light. No other building in West Bay has such truly stunning views.

Despite having moved away from being a café and now being purely a bistro and bar, the new ellipse is still serving coffees, and fresh baked pastries every morning with a selection of home made cakes that are also available in the afternoon. In the new Bistro you will also now be greeted with table service, but still have the same relaxed, informal atmosphere.

The seafront location not only boasts stunning panoramic views, but also al-fresco dining which can be enjoyed through the warmer months. Pop in and have a look for yourselves and sample the wonderful atmosphere, food, and drinks that ellipse has to offer, while taking in the breathtaking surroundings.

O'Hooley & Tidow Return to Bridport with New Album

THE wonderful O'Hooley & Tidow are coming to Bridport on Saturday, March 29th, at 8pm. The Yorkshire duo, who were personally invited to play Glastonbury by Billy Bragg, will be performing from their acclaimed new album The Hum.

Belinda O'Hooley and Heidi Tidow earned a reputation for being a must-see act because of their stunning and delightfully unconventional, emotionally charged performances.

Their second album The Fragile was nominated for 'Best Duo' in the 2013 BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards, with The Guardian hailing them as 'The Best Act of Cambridge Folk Festival'. As well as high praise for their beautiful, interweaving harmonies and sublime musicality, they are acknowledged as one of the strongest songwriting partnerships on the contemporary folk scene.

New album The Hum, reveals songs about the strength of migrating people, the oppressed and alienated. Produced by Mercury-nominated Gerry Diver, it is defiant and political with undercurrents of optimism.

Belinda and Heidi's powerful thought provoking and deeply moving performances are infused with an honesty and empathy that will disarm even the hardest of heart.

The album has received much critical acclaim and this is an opportunity to see confident musicians growing their reputation. Don't miss them.

O'Hooley & Tidow play at Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, March 29th at 8pm. Tickets are £10, £9 members, £7 Concessions. 20 tickets priced at £3 (advance) have been saved for people in receipt of benefits. Tickets are available from the Box office 01308 424204 or online at www.bridport-arts.com

Are you a lucky ticket holder for Las Vegas Cabaret with Elton John?

TICKETS are selling well for Elton John's new Las Vegas show coming to the Electric Palace, and Elton John has offered to give free copies of his new CD and posters to thank audiences across the UK for coming along. There will be at least 10 lucky ticket holders drawn from a hat before the screening of Elton John's: Million Dollar Piano. Tickets are available from the Bridport TIC as well as seetickets.com.

Elton John's residency at Caesars Palace was never going to be a restrained, low-key affair. But no one was quite prepared for just how amazing his show would turn out to be. Its centrepiece is the breathtaking eponymous piano. Specially created by Yamaha, this magnificent feat of engineering weighs in at nearly 3,200 pounds and features more than 68 LED video screens!

The Electric Palace have made room for a dance floor to encourage dancing along to some of Elton's classic dance tracks such as 'Crocodile Rock' and 'I'm Still Standing'. Seating for the event will be 'cabaret style' with a drinks service to your table to make it a special evening.

More information about this special musical event can be found at www.electricpalace.org.uk

The screening of Elton John's Caesar Palace performance takes place on Saturday, March 22nd. Doors open 7pm, and the show starts 8pm. Tickets are £10.50+bf in advance.

From Rod Stewart to the Bolshoi

THE Gateway in Seaton once again has an exciting and diverse line-up of upcoming shows.

The voice, the look, the charisma – Paul Metcalfe's Rod Stewart Tribute Act has it all!

Paul is surely the finest Rod Stewart soundalike in the UK, and is back at The Gateway for a second time due to popular demand. Paul's Rod Stewart Tribute Act involves the same swaggering showmanship, audience participation and sheer sense of fun that has made Rod Stewart one of the most popular performers of all time. Paul Metcalfe performs at The Gateway on Saturday, March 29th, with doors opening 7.30pm. Tickets £12 in advance, £15 on the door.

Although no one has ever seen him, the misdeeds of bandit Marco Spada are notorious. Even his lovely daughter, Angela, has no idea of Spada's secret double life. He's raised her in his castle lair, while conducting his brazen plundering right under the nose of the Governor. Angela, meanwhile, has become romantically obsessed with Prince Frederici. But she's distraught to learn that he is already betrothed to Marchesa Sampietri – the Governor's daughter!

Nineteenth century French composer Daniel François Esprit Auber's rarely performed ballet in three acts has been recreated specially for the Bolshoi by choreographer Pierre Lacotte. This glorious production is both technically and dramatically demanding. It features complex choreography, lead roles created for each of the five principals, several changes in scenery, and the participation of nearly all the Corps de Ballet. Marco Spada will be screened on Sunday, March 30th. Tickets £15 advance and £17.50 on door.

Anger, Betrayal, and the chance that true love could actually conquer all. It could only be the greatest love story of all time, Romeo & Juliet.

Shakespeare's tragic tale of two star-crossed lovers has captured the imaginations of generations of theatregoers, and director David Leveaux's revival is a provocative production with a modern, urban vibe.

Orlando Bloom makes an impressive Broadway debut as Romeo and Condola Rashad is a lovely complement to him, appearing devoted, pure and wide-eyed.

Romeo and Juliet is a striking piece of theatre, and the universality of the theme never grows old: finding love, keeping love, the expense of love and, ultimately, the triumph of love over hate. Staged on Broadway for the first time in 36 years, director David Leveaux brings a dynamic energy and contemporary setting to his interpretation of this eternally tragic tale of star-crossed lovers. With 2014 marking the 450th anniversary of Shakespeare's birth, Broadway's Romeo and Juliet will appeal both to the regular theatre-goer and those coming to Shakespeare for the very first time. Romeo & Juliet will be shown on Tuesday, April 1st. Tickets £12.50 advance and £15.00 on door. Doors open 6pm, performance starts 7pm.

Puccini's La Bohème is the moving story of young love, and the most performed opera in Met history - with good reason. Maija Kovalevska, Anita Hartig, and Barbara Frittoli star as the frail Mimi in Franco Zeffirelli's classic production, with Joseph Calleja and Vittorio Grigolo sharing the role of her passionate lover, Rodolfo.

La Bohème will be show on Sunday, April 6th. Doors open 3pm, performance starts 4pm. Tickets £15 in advance and £17.50 on the door.

Grease is the word for WOW

WOW YMT have successfully contracted the musical Grease for it's annual Spring production at the Pavilion Theatre Weymouth.

This production is being Directed and Choreographed by Martine Burt who was herself a former WOW member. Martine now a professional Director/Choreographer has worked with WOW on several productions now and recently has been awarded, by NODA South West (The National Operatic and Dramatic Association), a trophy for 'Outstanding Choreography' in the 'WOW SHOW' in 2013. Martine is being assisted by Paul Jones a fully trained dancer himself. Heather Reed is Musical Director and will be conducting the orchestra.

The show has only recently been released for Amateur performances and does have a very high budget, therefore WOW is looking at a cost of £30k for the production! The last time that WOW performed Grease was in 1990 when they played to full houses. Obviously they are hoping to repeat this!

Martine saw the WOW production back in 1990 and consequently decided to audition and join WOW as a result of this. How ironic it is that here she is now directing Grease for WOW!

Grease was first produced in 1971 with music by Jim Jacobs and Warren Casey. The musical set in 1959, at fictional Rydell High School, follows ten working-class teenagers as they navigate the complexities of love. The score attempts to recreate the sounds of early rock n' roll. Grease was first performed in Chicago in 1971 from there it has been successful on both stage and screen running as one of the longest in Broadway history. It went on to become a West End hit and a hugely successful film. It remains Broadway's 15th longest-running show.

The recent West End production has seen two former WOW members, Kerry Winter and Chloe Brooks (now Tweed) performing on separate occasions and both sharing the same roll ironically

The cast, once again, has been selected from the very talented youngsters who have been enjoying a great time at rehearsal. Callum Heinrich and Imogen Carter head the cast as Danny and Sandy both playing leading roles for the first time

The music contains several well known songs, which the audience will probably want to sing along to such as, 'Summer Nights', 'Greased Lightening', 'Shakin' at The High School Hop', 'Hopelessly Devoted to You', 'We Go Together', 'Born To Hand Jive', 'There Are Worse Things I Could Do', and 'You're the One That I Want'.

The production is from April 9th-12th at the Pavilion Theatre, and tickets can be obtained either on-line www.weymouthpavilion.co.uk or by ringing the Box Office on 783225. Pre-show meals are also bookable through the Box Office.

Seats are from £11.50 to £14.00, with concessions of £11.50 for the Wednesday night and Saturday Matinee. This one is definitely one not to miss!

Simon & Garfunkel:
Through The Years

WHEN Simon and Garfunkel met neither could have imagined the career that lay before them.

With timeless hits such as 'Sound of Silence', they remain one of the most popular and internationally acclaimed musical duos.

Written and performed by 'Bookends', this show charts their journey from the first meeting, through the troubled waters and to their re-ignited friendship.

Using a unique blend of video clips, audio snippets, imagery and delicate live performances, personal accounts of their rise to fame and famous break-up are intimately revealed.

Of course, their story would be left incomplete without live music, and Bookends don't disappoint in their own renditions. With voices that blend together in an uncanny recreation of the trade mark sound of Simon and Garfunkel, and backed by a full line-up of musicians, the 'Through the Years' show features songs from every Simon and Garfunkel album such as The Sound Of Silence, Mrs Robinson, The Boxer and the unforgettable Bridge Over Troubled Water.

Bookends have enraptured audiences with their Simon & Garfunkel renditions across the globe. Following a BBC Radio tour the show was described as a "must see" with Bookends being labeled as the most authentic sounding tribute to the music of the American duo - a rare treat for any fan!

Simon and Garfunkel: Through The Years comes to the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Thursday, March 20th. Tickets (£12/£10) are available on 01297 442138 or on www.marinetheatre.com

RIP-ROARING COMEDY FROM CLOS

CHARD Light Operatic Society are staging "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum" at The Guildhall, Chard from March 27th - 29th. With music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim, this hilarious romp was the inspiration for 'Up Pompeii', the hit 70s comedy starring Frankie Howerd.

It tells the bawdy story of the lying, cheating slave Pseudolus and his attempts to win his freedom by helping his young master, Hero to woo Philia, the girl next door. Only one problem: the virgin Philia has already been sold to a far more powerful man!

With a talented cast, a host of toe-tapping songs and a plot that includes all the elements of the classic farce there is something for everyone; audiences can look forward to serious satire, outrageous puns and unbelievable cases of mistaken identity as well as voluptuous courtesans, uproarious funerals and, of course, lots of chases.

Performances start at 7.30 nightly on Thursday 27th, Friday 28th and Saturday 29th March with a matinee on Saturday at 2.30pm and tickets for the show are on sale now at Barron's, Holyrood Street, Chard.

Delightful four bedroom detached house situated on the popular Rousdon Estate

SITUATED on the popular Rousdon Estate, close to Lyme Regis this delightful detached four bedroom house along with its one bedroom annex is set within its own private courtyard for the asking price of £575,000.

Number 5, Old Home Farm has been built in a private courtyard with original high stone walls which once surrounded the estate kennels that now form a detached annex to the house. The house with its thick walls, deep eaves and oak flooring provides spacious accommodation which briefly comprises:- Entrance hallway, cloakroom, lounge with wood burner, kitchen/ dining room with Aga, utility room, 1st floor landing, master bedroom with en suite, 3 further bedrooms and family bathroom. The annex with its bedroom, shower room and open plan living space provides additional accommodation suitable for a holiday let, relative or home office. Outside the courtyard provides plenty of space to park. A pedestrian gate leads to the rear lawned gardens that are set on two levels connected by stone steps. There are fine views across neighbouring fields and open countryside towards the Axe Valley.

Rousdon is situated close to Lyme Regis which is famed for its many historic connections and character buildings, and of course, for its well-known Cobb Harbour. As a resort, it is considered quite unspoilt, but has most of the shops and amenities that one could require. There are numerous leisure activities including both sailing and power boat clubs, a cliff top golf course and a bowling club. The whole coastline with Lyme Regis and Charmouth at its centre is designated a World Heritage Site, commonly known as the Jurassic Coast. It lies approximately 5 miles from the market town of Axminster, with its main line railway connections to Waterloo (Approx. 2 3/4 hours). Taunton and Exeter are within a radius of about 30 miles with access to the M5 motorway and the county town of Dorchester is a similar distance. Locally there are primary schools in Lyme Regis and Uplyme along with the well-respected Woodroffe School and Colyton Grammar School.

A viewing is highly recommended to appreciate all this property has to offer. EPC band C.

Please call Fortnam Smith & Banwell Estate Agents on 01297 - 445666 to arrange a viewing.

All New, All Mini: The New Mini Hatch

EVEN though the new MINI Hatch is instantly recognisable – something which comes from having such a globally identifiable design – the car is completely new from the ground up. Every component has been back to the drawing board in an effort to optimise its function, performance and style.

The result is 'The New Original', a MINI which is distinctly familiar but enhanced in every single way. It features significant improvements in technology, engine efficiency and power delivery, driving dynamics, quality and – of course – personalisation. Inside, the new MINI Hatch is quieter than the outgoing model, with improvements to acoustic refinement inside the cabin.

The new MINI Hatch is more spacious than before, safer, finished to an even higher standard and provides the driver with a more dynamic and performance-oriented experience behind the wheel.

Inside the cabin, new technology ensures that the new MINI is the most connected car in its segment. A new central LED display, the first of its kind, provides the driver with visual feedback whilst operating the car and creates a premium ambience. It reflects a maturity and confidence in the brand's design and engineering, a car which pays tribute to its unique British heritage yet stands ready to lead MINI into the second half of this decade and beyond.

Exterior: unmistakable design, contemporary style

The body of the new MINI is 3,821mm long (MINI Cooper S is 3,850mm), 1,727mm wide and 1,414mm tall. This makes it 98mm longer, 44mm wider and 7mm taller than its predecessor. The wheelbase has been extended by 28mm, while the track width has been enlarged at the front by 42mm and at the rear by 34mm.

Behind the changes, the new car has classic MINI proportions and an instantly familiar design that's packed with character. Traditional cues such as the hexagonal contour of the radiator grille, circular headlights, 'side scuttle' indicator surrounds, upright rear light clusters and black lower body edging have all been subtly reinterpreted.

In profile, the tapering line of the glasshouse creates a dynamic wedge shape. Below, a visual link between the front and rear wheel arches comes via a striking lower sill line and upper character line, which feature downward curves at both ends.

The new MINI is the first car in its segment to offer the option of LED headlamps for both dipped and main beam. They are surrounded by an LED daylight driving ring, the lower section of which reaches down to the white turn indicators. The rear light clusters also feature an all-LED design.

Five new exterior colours have been added to MINI's already extensive palette, while the roof and exterior mirror caps can be finished in a contrasting colour, black or white, as a no-cost option. Roof rails are available for the new MINI for the first time. Other ways of adding a touch of individual style include black or white bonnet stripes.

Driven by Beauty: Citroën & Benefit Debut DS3 Special Editions

CITROËN has revealed the first production model DS3 special editions designed in collaboration with Benefit Cosmetics.

On sale from today (12 March) and priced from £14,795, the glamorous DS3 by Benefit line-up consists of two models – based on the existing DSign and DStyle trim levels – which take inspiration from Benefit's fun and iconic beauty products. A third Benefit special edition DS3 will be unveiled later in the summer.

In a retailing first, Citroën and Benefit have worked with ASOS – the UK's largest independent online fashion and beauty retailer – to create the first online car boutique, on a dedicated section of the site at www.asos.com/citroen. Visitors can explore the new DS3 by Benefit special editions, see the inspiration behind the styling, browse the fashion and accessories used in the adverts and even get in touch with Citroën to book a test drive.

DS3 DSign BY BENEFIT

Inspired by Benefit's world renowned Benetint™ – their signature red lip and cheek stain – DS3 DSign by Benefit is powered by an efficient VTI 82 engine with a manual gearbox and is based on the DSign specification, but with added features.

The body is finished in Ruby Red metallic paint with a white roof and door mirrors, along with dark tinted rear windows, chrome detailing and 17" white alloy wheels.

The chic styling continues inside with a white dashboard, air vent surrounds and gear stick cap; bespoke black velour carpet mats with red piping and red Benefit logo, and aluminium pedals. A generous specification includes daytime running LED lights, air conditioning and a Connecting Box with Bluetooth® and USB connectivity. The luxury feel is further reinforced with attractive, stylish and sophisticated Alcantara trim on the sports seats.

tara trim on the sports seats.

DS3 DStyle BY BENEFIT

Inspired by 'They're Real!'™ – the UK's best-selling mascara – DS3 DStyle by Benefit is powered by a sporty VTI 120 manual and is based on the well-specified DStyle Plus trim.

The outside is resplendent in a distinctive metallic grey, with Benefit Orange on the roof, door mirrors and wheel centre caps. 17" black alloy wheels and dark tinted rear windows complete the dynamic styling.

Inside, the cabin is seductive with a gloss black dashboard, air vent surrounds and gear stick cap; bespoke black velour carpet mats with orange piping and orange Benefit logo, and aluminium pedals. These features are greatly enhanced by the luxurious Alcantara trim on the sports seats, which further adds to the car's undeniable aesthetic appeal.

A City Signature pack includes automatic digital air conditioning, automatically illuminating headlamps, automatic rain sensitive wipers, rear parking sensors, electrically heated and folding door mirrors, an electrochrome rear view mirror, interior mood lighting and a front central armrest. The Connecting Box system (Bluetooth® and USB) is also fitted.

DS3 DSign and DStyle by Benefit are available from £14,795 and £16,795 respectively. The addition of Benefit beauty products and a special make up bag designed to fit in the glove box with every model enhances the allure of this truly enchanting car – the ultimate accessory.

On both models, a Benefit logo badge signatures the rear, whilst the company's trademark 'Gabbri's head' motif appears on the 'shark fin' B pillars and the body colour-coordinated key fob. Benefit Cosmetics Managing Directors, Ian Marshall & Gail Bojarski added: "Following the overwhelmingly positive response to 'DS3 by Benefit concept', which was launched at the end of last year, we are very excited with plans to launch a whole series of limited edition 'Benefit' DS3's. With Citroën we have found a partner that shares our forward thinking vision and who also likes to do things differently. To launch the series, we are delighted to be partnering with ASOS to create the world's first online car boutique!

"Now girls can buy their favourite Benefit products, shop the trends and book a test drive in the hottest car on the road, all in one click."

Jules Tilstone, Marketing Director at Citroën UK added: "Following the overwhelming response to our DS3 by Benefit concept that we showcased last year, we're delighted to be launching these road-ready special editions. Working with such a fun and enthusiastic company as Benefit has been a terrific experience and we look forward to introducing new audiences to the style and charm of Citroën DS3 with these collaboration models – the height of four-wheel-fashion."

DORSET INTERMEDIATE CUP

Semi-Final replay

LYME REGIS 3 NORMALAIR RSL 0

WELL it wasn't a classic but Lyme Regis deservedly clinched a place in their fourth consecutive Dorset Intermediate Cup final in the sunshine at the Davey Fort on Saturday.

A tentative opening quarter saw both sides battling to come to terms with a bobbly surface. Lyme went close in the 18th minute when Mark Bailey's corner kick was only half cleared and returned into the box where Lyme skipper Matt Laing's effort from six yards was hacked off the line.

Julien Simier turned well before firing in a 20-yard skimming shot on half-hour but visiting gloveman Tim Hinder wasn't fully tested.

The deadlock was broken in the 42nd minute. Joel Gostling curled in a corner kick to the near post where Normalair centre-back Dan Lumsden thundered a header past his own keeper.

As with last week's 1-1 draw the game then went flat for a period with the visitors failing to force Lyme keeper Chris Higgs into making a single save.

Seasiders manager Tim Edwards then introduced Harvey Brimicombe off the bench on the hour mark and the teenager immediately injected some extra pace and threat into the front line.

But the next chance arrived at the other end and in somewhat controversial circumstances.

In the 74th minute Normalair striker Matt Burt burst through the inside left channel and Higgs rushed out, diving full length to reach for the ball.

Burt went over and referee Muhl pointed to the spot. Higgs was adamant that he glove on the ball.

As it was Lyme were handed a reprieve when Jamie Dyas crashed the resulting penalty kick against the crossbar.

This visibly lifted the previously willing Seasiders and the result was sealed 10 minutes later when Ally Rattenbury's pinpoint cross was bundled home from under the cross bar by Brimicombe.

The icing on the cake was applied four minutes into injury time when Sam Farmer arrived late into the penalty box where he met Gostling's incisive low centre and smashed the ball past Hinder for his first goal for the club.

Lyme will now face Bournemouth League Division

One outfit Allendale in the final on Tuesday, April 15th, at Bridport FC's St Mary's Ground.

DAISY HUTCHINGS CUP R2

LYME BANTAMS 3 LUSO-CHARD 0

THERE was a giant-killing at the Woodroffe School where Division Three promotion chasers Lyme Regis Bantams handed out a lesson to Luso-Chard, currently lying in second place in Division Two.

The Seasiders took the lead when Ash Walkey netted with a superb free-kick.

The advantage was doubled when Fred Etherington set off on a long run from the back before being scythed down in the box and referee Andy Dyke had no hesitation in pointing to the spot. Jim Maidment made no mistake and Lyme had one foot in the quarter-finals.

That was confirmed when a long downfield punt from keeper Mark Tozer was headed past his own keeper by a hapless defender.

Lyme joint-manager Darren Poole felt this was the team's best team performance of the season and was particularly impressed with the back three of Etherington, Chris Simpson and Mark Hodder.

■ OFF THE MARK: Ex-Honiton Town mid-fielder Sam Farmer scored his first goal for Lyme Regis in the county cup semi-final win.

JACK VENN CUP QF

DOWLISH & DON 2 CHARMOUTH 1
THERE was good news for Charmouth despite Saturday's Jack Venn cup defeat on the Donyatt slope.

The Robins have learned that last week's Daisy Hutchings cup defeat against the same opponents has been overturned and they have been handed a place in the quarter-finals.

ter-finals.

Back to Saturday's game and Charmouth, who could only muster 12 players, trailed 1-0 at half-time before Paul Miners was felled in the box and Dan Rendall stepped up to score from the penalty spot for his 11th goal of the campaign to force extra-time.

The hosts regained the lead and, despite concerted efforts, The Robins couldn't conjure up a second leveller and crashed out. Manager Andy Potter said: "It was disappointing that I could only rustle up 12 players for a big cup-tie."

PREMIER

BEAMINSTER 5 COMBE RES 1

A THIRD consecutive win at their Memorial Ground home has lifted Beaminster up to the lofty heights of fifth spot in the Premier Division table and plunged opponents Combe Reserves firmly into a relegation dog-fight.

Gary Corry opened the scoring before Ben Ward volleyed home number two.

Further strikes from Murray Legg and Man-of-the-Match Josh Baker put the Rainbows away and clear at the turnaround.

Alf Ward completed the nap-hand in the second-half before the beleaguered Saints grabbed a late consolation through Mark Biss.

CREWKERNE 5 PERRY STREET 1

CREWKERNE Town surged six points clear at the top of the table after coming from behind to record an impressive win at Hen-haves.

The hosts were slow out of the blocks and Street took advantage by taking the lead in the 18th minute through Braden Symes.

But the Tigers eventually found their rhythm and Jak Platt equalised ten minutes before the break. Jamie Spurdle coolly lobbed home number two before crossing for Dave John to power home a bullet header to make 3-1 at the interval.

Crewkerne moved up through the gears in the second-half and made the points safe with further goals from Spurdle, his 24th of the season, and Brad Miles.

Street manager Ian Hilton said afterwards: "I didn't think 5-1 was a fair reflection of how hard we worked. Jake Board hit the crossbar from a free-kick and Liam Riste missed a couple of late one-on-ones."

SHEPTON BEAU 0 W & M CHINNOCK 1

A FOURTH minute goal from top-scorer Mark Cawley proved decisive as The Chinnocks bagged all three points which sees them up to second spot in the table.

■ ON TARGET: Cameron Murless' goal almost earned Pymore a shock win over table-topper South Petherton at St Mary's.

The visitors goalkeeper-manager Matt Alford felt his side deserved the win, he said: "I only had one shot to save in the whole game, whereas Rich Phippen saved five one-on-ones at the other end."

"My team threw everything into tackles and all did what was asked of them - I'm very proud."

WINSHAM UTD 2 MILLWYSE RISE 3

DESPITE putting on what player-manager Tom Stead described as "Our best performance of the season" defeat at Bakersfield on Saturday has left defending champions Winsham United teetering on the brink of relegation.

Millwyse took the lead when Levi Hoole converted from close range. Brad-Lee Miller made it 2-0 in the 19th minute with a free-kick that deflected off the defensive wall.

Corrin Corrick pulled one back for the hosts before half-time only for Mark Pike to restore Rise's two-goal cushion.

Hopes of a possible point were reignited for the battling hosts when James Parsons' speculative long-ranger squirmed through the legs of Millwyse keeper Ash Hall.

But Millwyse clung on with manager Matt Hall impressed by the efforts of Carl German and Tim Bough.

DIVISION ONE

NETHERBURY 1 BARRINGTON 0

NETHERBURY recorded their first win in five games and got revenge for a 5-0 defeat in the reverse fixture by Barrington last Saturday.

Neither team started particularly well with a very bobbly pitch at Netherbury perhaps not helping.

Both teams were looking to test the defences with long balls over the top and this was how the Ambers got what proved to be the winner.

A long ball forward forward caused confusion in the visitors defence and John Kingston got his reward for persistence when his left foot shot squirmed past two defenders and bobbed in.

Barrington responded but missed two chances to equalise in the space of a minute. Firstly from a free header from a corner and then after a miscued clearance from keeper Adam Sorrell, the on-rushing striker could not finish.

The Ambers started brightly in the second-half and Kingston had a chance when put through one-on-one, but the Barrington keeper was equal to it.

Ryan Gay, who had an excellent game at centre-back, thought he'd made it 2-0, but his header from close quarters was disallowed for offside.

Barrington piled on the pressure in the last 20 minutes but the impressive Ambers' back four remained solid.

The visitors thought they had grabbed a point in injury time when a lofted ball bounced over the under pressure Sorrell and into the net, however this was disallowed due to a foul on the keeper and Netherbury hung on for a vital win.

Manager Andy Loudon said: "We've had much better performances and lost, but I don't really care as the result is all important."

"We've been unlucky in a few games this season, but we certainly had some fortune at times today". He praised his entire back four, but singled out Ryan Gay and Richard Pincombe as his top men.

BEAMINSTER ST RES P BEAMINSTER RES P

BEAMINSTER Reserves failed to raise a team for the trip to Tatworth.

PYMORE 1 SOUTH PETHERTON RES 1

PYMORE blew the Division One title race wide open by holding favourites South Petherton to a 1-1 draw.

After a goal-less first-half Cameron Murless gave Pymore the lead in the 48th minute and, despite Pethy being on top, they couldn't break through until very late-on when Ashley Smith netted the equaliser.

Dean Smith and Jody Bovey both struck the woodwork as the hosts went in search of a winner.

DIVISION TWO

THORNCOMBE 1 WAYTOWN HOUNDS 0
IN a game of very few chances Ethan Guppy went closest to registering in a goalless first-half with a thunderous drive from a corner - unfortunately the shot was straight at Andrew Sochon in the Thorns goal.

Matt Read had a goal ruled for offside before the hosts grabbed a late winner with Alex Clist on target for the sixth successive game. Tom Rutland was top Hound.

DIVISION FOUR

UPLYME RES 0 MERRIOTT DYNAMOS 7
UPLYME Reserves were no match for title favourites Merriott Dynamos as they were crushed at Venlake.

Barry Hayne (2), Ross Wetherall (2), Nye Dang, Adam Swinnerton and Dan Anjos netted for the visitors.

Seed Sees Lyme to cup win

BY RICHARD JACKMAN

IN the three-ball better ball competition on Sunday, Simon Vincent, Wayne Vincent & Paul Hampton scored an excellent 80 points to just out Brian True-May, Neal Cullen & Neil Thomas (79 points) into second place. Hugh McGuire, Christopher Binding & Kevin Lacey - 72pts third.

Also on Sunday vice-captain Roger Seed, son George Seed & Adrian Morgan won the Open three-ball team event on the West course at Saunton with 80 points.

The ladies finally played their captain versus vice-captain fun match with the latter's team coming out on top.

Saturday saw Lyme's Hardy A team draw a thrilling cup match with Highcliffe Castle. In the play-off George Seed kept his nerve to hit a great second shot to birdie the first extra hole, sinking a nine-foot putt. He played a truly miraculous shot from a really tough position under a gorse bush.

Meanwhile, the juniors were enjoying the pleasant sun playing a stableford competition. There were three players tied on 36 points so it was on countback that the final order was: 1st Lewis Cottam, 2nd Cameron Moss, 3rd David Lyon.

Bees stung by controversial red card for Clarke

BRIDPORT RES 1 MERLEY COBHAM 1
THIS game was marred by a controversial decision from referee Gordon Kiy to red-card Bridport's Ben Clarke towards the end of their 1-1 draw with Merley Cobham Sports at St Mary's Field on Saturday.

Despite not playing at their best Bridport Reserves were good value for the point that keeps them in sixth place in the Dorset Premier league.

The Bees, boosted by the inclusion of first team striker Ryan Dovell who was unable to travel to Hallen because of work commitments, fell behind on 27 minutes when they didn't clear the ball following a free-kick and Joe Wood scored.

Manager Robin Townsend was not convinced that it was a correct decision in the first place, but had no qualms about his side's failure to defend it well.

"They probably just about deserved it on the play to then, but we got back into it and earned the equaliser."

Tristan Gale, who had a good game down the left, found Jack Scovell, who slid in Dovell to make no mistake for the equaliser. The postman might have put the Bees ahead just before the break but he missed the target with a header from 12 yards from Gale's cross.

Townsend felt his side deserved to be on equal terms at the break despite his side not playing at their best.

Bridport came out with more impetus after the break and looked a much better side and created a few chances.

"To be honest they were disappointing considering their position, Portland are a much better side than them," added Townsend.

The controversy followed the introduction of player-manager Ollie Cherett towards the end of the game. He leapt into a crunching tackle on Sam Day which resulted in a melee.

Ben Clark stepped in to try and quell the row and put his hand on Cherrett's shoulder to calm him.

With that the Merley player collapsed to the ground as if poleaxed.

Referee Kiy yellow carded Cherrett and then sent Clarke off with a straight red card.

Townsend was at a loss to the referee's action.

"Their manager jumped into a late tackle on Sam Day; he even turned his back as he made it. Ben tried to calm the situation and put his arm around Cherrett's shoulder to calm him down.

"I congratulated the assistant as he went past for being pro-active and going to help sort it.

"When the ref booked Cherett; he claimed afterwards it was for enticement; I was pleased because he deserved it, but then he red-carded Ben.

"When I asked after the game why he had sent Ben off he claimed he grabbed him around the neck which anyone around the situation could see he clearly didn't.

"The unfortunate thing about it is that Ben will now get something like a three game ban for violent conduct, which is wrong, but there is no appeal."

Struggle continues

BERE REGIS 3 BRIDPORT THIRDS 2
THE lack of availability took its toll again when Bridport 3rds were beaten by bottom side Bere Regis who recorded only their second win of the season.

The Bees had to draft in two Lyme Regis Reserve team regulars to make up the numbers; a problem that has blighted manager Andy Hitchcock all season.

"I'm grateful to Lyme for loaning us Ryan Turner and Alex Rowe; without them we couldn't have fulfilled the fixture, and whilst they found the step up hard, they both put in a workmanlike performance as did all the team."

Graeme Rose scored the first of his hat trick for the hosts to put them a goal up, but Adam Stordy equalised from the penalty spot after Chris Symes was sent sprawling by the keeper. Rose however scored again to give Bere Regis an interval lead.

The Bees missed an easy chance to equalise early in the second half and paid for it when Rose completed his hat-trick.

In an even second-half Bridport couldn't get back into the match until five minutes before the end when Turner's ankles were clipped and Stordy scored again from the spot.

Hitchcock added: "The one bright spot is that five of the team are all under 18 and have come through this season."

Three dismissed as Bridport sink Poole

BRIDPORT YOUTH U17s 7 POOLE TOWN WESSEX 4

ON a St Mary's Playing Field pitch that can only be described as "agricultural", Bridport slugged it out against an aggressive Poole team.

The home team's eventual victory was achieved at some cost as cumulative yellow cards meant that they finished the match with just nine players.

Hawks still on course as they dash Yeovil's chances

WEST DORSET HAWKS 3 YEOVIL & SHERB A 1
WEST Dorset Hawks continued in their quest of the South East 1 title with an emphatic win that just about kills Yeovil & Sherborne A's chances this season.

The two sides went into this match with the hosts a point clear of Bridgwater A and three ahead of their visitors and Sidmouth & Ottery B, and it looked ominous for Hawks when they went behind in the 13th minutes.

However, they led 2-1 at the break and almost strolled through the second half as Yeovil ran out of steam.

Hawks started the match brightly and the visiting keeper was forced into a brilliant block to deny Dan Wyatt scoring in the third minute.

This woke Yeovil out of their slumbers and they took the lead in the 13th minute when Hawks failed to clear a short corner conceded by a clumsy tackle from Julian May, and Graham McKinnon was on hand to score an incredible 37th goal of the season.

Hawks equalised in the 20th minute when May atoned for his error by forcing a short corner, the routine giving Alex Davies the opportunity to score from close range; and Yeovil were reduced to ten men when a player received a yellow card and ten minutes in the sin bin for disputing the decision too vociferously.

Hawks took advantage and went in front on 24 minutes when Rick Steel neatly turned his marker before firing in a brilliant reverse stick wide from a narrow angle, beyond the keeper.

Despite returning to a full complement, Yeovil rarely threatened and keeper Tom Lowe had a relatively easy afternoon.

Although Hawks were not at their best with a number of passes going astray, they did have Mike Thomas and Steve Mearing back in harness up front.

The duo joined the club this season and have given the side an energy up front that has been lacking with an ageing side.

Driven on by skipper Rick Dormer, Hawks thought they had increased their lead within the first 90 seconds of the interval from a short corner when the injection was laid off for Thomas who fired into the net, but it was ruled out as it did not hit the backboard.

Mearing might have then got on the score sheet after 55 minutes when he played a delightful one-two with Steel but the keeper once again thwarted Hawks with a great save.

However, he could nothing with Hawks fourth goal on 52 minutes when Mearing's cross found Thomas at the far post who scored at the second attempt after his initial effort had come back off the upright.

Hawks lock out Isca

ISCA E O WEST DORSET HAWKS A 3

WEST Dorset A continued their push for promotion with an excellent 3-0 win in Exeter against Isca E.

The hosts boasted an impressive home record but posed few problems for the West Dorset defence who continue to prove difficult to break down this season.

They have now kept 11 clean sheets in 20 games with only five goals conceded in nine games since Christmas.

West Dorset went in front midway through the first-half after Lee Connolly drilled a shot at goal that was helped into the net mid-air, via the stick of George Baker.

The visitors extended their lead near the end of the first-half when Kiwi Rich Wilson fired across the goalmouth and Baker steered the ball in at the back post.

After the break Hawks continued to create the better chances but could only add one more to their total when a neat passing move was finished off by John Kellas.

The game took on more significance with leaders Bridgwater C being hammered 5-1 by ECV Hornets C who are contesting second place with the Hawks.

Whilst the leaders only require one victory from their two remaining matches, Hornets and Hawks are locked on 45 points, but with the West Dorset side having a superior goal difference.

The two sides meet the bottom two teams next week.

Beaminster slip to disappointing defeat

WIMBORNE WAYFARERS 2 BEAMINSTER 1

AFTER the euphoria of Beaminster's last two results where they held title rivals Gillingham and Bournemouth 3rd's to very respectable draws, the West Dorset side slipped to a disappointing defeat at Wimborne.

Beaminster created a number of chances but failed to cash in on them.

Their goal came after Danni Donovan's shot came back off the post and was eventually turned over the line by Phoebe Stewart who later hurt her back.

Tori Hosegood then picked up a knee injury ten minutes from time and had to leave the field, leaving Beaminster to play out time one player short.

Jenny Clarke and Izzy Mullen both had good games, but as a team it wasn't Beaminster's best.

The defeat however means that Beaminster's third place finish could be in jeopardy. This Saturday they entertain Yeovil & Sherborne 3rd's.

Barring a major upset, it appears the title was decided at Chapel Gate last Saturday where Gillingham beat hosts Bournemouth 3rd's with a goal three minutes from time.

The two sides were locked on equal points, but the North Dorset's superior goal difference meant Bournemouth really needed to win to have chance of snatching the title. They took the lead after five minutes, but were pegged back midway through the first half.

Gillingham whose last two games are against the bottom two sides showed none of the petulance they did against Beaminster recently; perhaps they have learned their lesson; and snatched the late winner to put them in the box seat.

Lyme Regis angling

Record breaking whiting!

MIKE Hansell landed a new club record whiting yesterday on a charter trip with Lyme Bay Charters - skipper, Lewis Hodder.

The whiting tipped the scales at 1947 grams (4.28lbs) and was caught on a whole squid. The whiting weren't shoaling but everyone caught some.

The anglers bagged some thornback rays, large pout (over 2lb) and Keith Holden caught a 10lb bull huss.

Mixed results for ladies

BRIDPORT ladies had mixed results this week in the County League.

At home to Moonfleet (Weymouth) they took maximum points; Joan Griffiths, Gill Hunt, Edna Cumberland and Sue Walsh romping home 28-12, and Francis Hewett, Margaret Pestelle, Pat Cornick and Margaret Clapp ending 21.17 up.

At the Dolphin (Poole) Liz Walker, Janet Tattershall, Cumberland and Walsh finished 14-2, but lost 21-22, whilst Laura Taylor, Ann Parkins, Hewett and Cornick also just missing out as a 3,2 finish couldn't stop them going down 20-21.

Gerry Moss, Pat Cowmeadow, Brian Pratt and Sue Walsh picked up two points in the County Mixed League against Dorchester with a 19-18 home win, but Viv Gill, Roger Cowmeadow, Ann Parkins and Brian Walsh lost 15-19.

At Dorchester Lynn and Mike Craddock and Laura and Bob Taylor fought well to only lose by one, 21-22, but Mel Hargett, David Aylott, Liz Walker and Jenny Harding couldn't get going and were well beaten.

Bridport Mile gathering pace!

RUNNING is becoming more popular in Bridport these days with the second beginners class organised by Bridport Runners attracting 15 novices who want to become fitter or learn how to get "from couch to 5k" within six weeks, starting last week.

Also the Sports Relief Mile to be run on Sunday (23rd) is picking up interest according to the number of registrations.

The charity race which starts at 11:40 am at St Mary's School and is jointly organised by St Mary's School and Bridport Runners, is offering participants the choice of running; with or without fancy dresses; one, three or six miles.

Anyone interested can enter on the day or via the website <http://www.sportrelief.com>.

The Bridport Mile is part of a nationwide series of over 1,000 sporting events taking place between March 21st and 23rd across the UK, and is aimed at raising money for Comic Relief.

Held for the first time in Bridport in March 2012, the event raised over £1,000, and attracted more than 100 runners of all ages.

"Unfortunately only two of them ran in fancy dresses, but I am sure Bridport can do a lot better in terms of costumes this time", says Brian Shelley.

Blues punished for too many gifted tries

Bridport 29 Wimborne 52
BRIDPORT, in particular, appeared distracted by the two Six Nations matches being televised in the club house either side of their home match with second place Wimborne, and paid for it with some poor play that saw the visitors win easily.

The big crowd that had assembled to watch all three games were astounded to find Bridport concede three uncomplicated converted tries inside the first 17 minutes and find themselves 21-0 down.

A gaggle of alternative penalties found Bridport at last in the Wimborne 22 before a flurry of short inter passing saw James Tuck reach past his tacklers to score his debut try for the club, Rory Greening converting to get the Blues on the scoreboard.

The Blues then had a centre yellow carded for a repeated barge tackle before a serious ankle injury to a Wimborne player caused the game to be moved to the second team pitch.

However the visitors continued their pressure and were duly awarded their fourth try when their standoff broke a tackle to score under the posts for an easy conversion 7-28, but a Greening penalty saw the Blues turn around 10-28 at halftime.

Despite the muddled start to the second half Bridport enjoyed the advantage of the slope to reverse pressure on their visitors, and Jason Blackmore was able to break through the defence for a second converted Blues try.

Wimborne quickly responded with a sweet try in the left hand corner which resulted from a huge looped pass from their skilled stand-off to make it 17-33 before a flat patch in the game saw some shabby line-outs, some infuriating knock-on's and an over-used whistle.

The Bridport scrum began to gel and boss the visiting eight, but a communication error between two Bridport backs resulted in an easy interception resulting in an easy Wimborne converted try under the posts.

This unintended gift stung the Blues into atonement in the final quarter, and there was more snap in their passing with the Blackmore/Greening combination working like Siamese twins in attack.

Tom Wilkins on the Blues' right wing crashed through several defenders for a third home try which was converted by Greening.

But Bridport's hard forward graft was let down by yet another intercepted try after Andrew Livingstone had broken from the base of the Bridport scrum for a break up the right before being held up close to the try line. To give away 21 points in this way is far too generous.

Wimborne then had a player yellow carded, and from a Blues scrum, Will Everett released the ball for Wilkins to run outside his marker for his second try and a bonus point for Bridport.

But Wimborne had the last word with an immaculate try from their sublime left winger who ghosted and jinked his way past several defenders to close the game at 29-52.

Bridport have now moved up the league table and with three final home league matches to come, they hope for a mid-table finish.

Next Saturday the Firsts are home to Swanage & Wareham. This match is preceded by the annual vice-President's lunch.

Exeter Chiefs U13 10 Bridport 0

THE journey for the young Blues to play a Chiefs side that has had a similar season to them showed as they conceded two early tries, both of which were unconverted.

■ DEBUT SCORE: James Tuck touches down to score his first try for the Blues

The first was scored after some strong running from the hosts, but the second was more fortuitous after the referee missed an accidental crossing, which allowed the Chiefs to go on and score.

Bridport showed determination in the scrum and were never troubled by the hosts, and although the Chiefs had a height advantage in the line out, this never seemed to worry the Blues.

The second-half saw Bridport with the majority of the possession but unfortunately they couldn't turn this into points.

This was a determined effort again from the under 13's who can use this game to build on and end the season on a winning streak.

Bridport U11 61 Sherborne 21
LOW on numbers Bridport lined up with 10 against Sherborne's 12, but the U11's are now a formidable team. Over the following 40 minutes the boys put in a superb performance by attacking the breakdown at every opportunity, taking the ball and driving it up the park.

Every scrum was theirs, even against the head; with good body position they marched over the ball to set up the next attack.

With four tries successfully converted the teams aim was to attack the open side and set the backs up.

This pressure set up one of the main highlights as man of the match Reuben Jolliffe whilst out running the defence and having a clear sight on the line, passed the ball in true teamwork spirit to his winger to score in the corner.

The other highlight was the grit and determination of Man-of-the-Match lock Oliver Wills who, with seconds to go, powered his way over to score under the posts.

Ryan Phillips, Callum Fowler and Oliver Wills all scored twice, with Harrison, Jolliffe and George Amos adding one each. Jolliffe also converted eight of the nine tries.

Bridport U9s v Sherborne

ANOTHER great turnout and another good performance for the under 9s who played two games against a well-organised and strong Sherborne side.

Bridport's tries came from Cosmo, Jude and Fred Underhay who all made some great runs and passed the ball well between them to find the gaps in the defence with Oliver, playing his first ever game of rugby also scoring two.

Bridport are improving each week but a bit more concentration and teamwork from all players would help to make a further improvement.

West Bay Sea Angling

Anglers honour Fred Bowditch with President's Cup

SUCH is the respect with which Wes Bay Sea Angling Club held former club President Fred Bowditch who died in October last year, that his successor Dave Cornick had no hesitation in presenting the President's Cup, which was instigated by Mr Bowditch, to his widow Vera posthumously at their annual presentation dinner held at Highlands End Holiday Park recently.

The award is presented to the member who the incumbent president considers has done the most work for the club.

Since Fred's passing the cup is to become a memorial trophy in his honour.

emotional

A highly emotional Mr Cornick said: "Without doubt Fred will be a difficult act to follow because he was extremely reliable and after approximately 50 years of involvement with our club, very experienced.

"I can see him now in August, presenting the prizes to the winners of the Species and Specimen Hunt Festival; he was always there and I am sure we will all miss him.

"I would like to thank you for putting your trust in me, and I will do my best to follow in Fred's illustrious footsteps."

He explained that it had been a very hard, although obvious decision to make.

"I have given considerable thought to the recipient with secretary Roger Guppy, our retired shore secretary, Simon Bowditch, Steve Fowles who took over from Simon, and the continued involvement of Richard Daw.

"Then there is James Barr who introduced measure to length points for boat matches and Fred Batten who looked after the club finances for many years.

"However, if ever a man deserved the award he introduced, it was Fred Bowditch.

"Therefore I request Vera to join me and receive the Presidents Cup on Fred's behalf."

There followed an extended round of applause demonstrating the respect and affection that was held for the late president by all members present.

The other main award of the evening, The Clubman Shield for the member who has best supported club events throughout the year, was won by Steve Fowles.

The evening began with the 50

Seasiders maintain iron grip on county cup

AFTER missing out last week cup-holders Lyme Regis got the job done at the Davey Fort on Saturday when they defeated Normair RSL 3-0 in front of a crowd of 120 to reach the Dorset Intermediate cup final for the 11th time in 20 years.

A 42nd minute own goal gave Lyme a half time lead and late strikes from Harvey Brimicombe and Sam Farmer sealed the win after the visitors had squandered a golden chance to get back in the game when they missed a 74th minutes penalty.

Lyme have another cup semi-final ahead on Saturday when they welcome Crewkerne Town (kick-off 2pm) with a place in the Challenge cup final at stake.

It's bound to be close – tussles between these two old rivals generally are.

Meanwhile, the congested end of season fixture list has been published and the Lyme Regis first team face the daunting task of playing 15 (or possibly 16) matches in just 35 days!

Tow high-fliers Luso-Chard 3-0 in the Daisy Hutchings cup second round tie at the Woodroffe School.

Goals from Ash Walkey, Jim Maidment and an og saw the Seasiders clinch the win and a quarter-final at Charmouth.

The Bantams will climb up to third spot in the Division Three table with victory at struggling Winsham Reserves on Saturday.

The Reserves face a Division One fixture against Forton Rangers at the Woodroffe School.

The Seasiders could leapfrog over their opponents into 3rd spot with a victory.

Over the border the UPLYME first team had no fixture while the Reserves was mauled by Merriott Dynamos 7-0 on their own Venlake Turf.

Both Swallows teams are in quarter-final action at the weekend. The first team return to action with an Arthur Gage tie at Farway United – a semi-final at Perry Street Reserves awaits for the winners.

At the same time the Reserves entertain Chard Rangers Reserves in the Reg Egton competition.

Meanwhile, CHARMOUTH lost a cup fixture at Dowlish & Donyatt for the second time in a week. Danny Rendall (pen) scored the goal as the Robins were beaten 2-1 in a Jack Venn cup quarter-final.

However, last week's 5-2 Daisy Hutchings cup defeat has been scrubbed from the records as Dowlish fielded an ineligible player and Charmouth have been handed a walkover in the last eight. Andy Potter's team welcome Chard United on Saturday.

The date and venue for the Division One cup Final between Lyme Regis Reserves and Perry Street Reserves has been confirmed. The sides will clash at Winsham United's Bakersfield on Bank Holiday Monday, April 21st.

◆ It's a big weekend ahead for the Lyme Regis under 16s who face Branksome United in the Dorset cup final at Hamworthy on Sunday (2.30pm ko).
